MELLETT MURDER SUSPECT COLLAPSES

RACE IN CAL'S HOME STATE IS IMPORTANT

Senate Election in Massachusetts Significant to Coolidge Third Term

EXPECT CLOSE FIGHT

If Democrat Is Elected It Will Be Interpreted as Repudiation of Chief

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1926, by the Post Pub. Co.
Washington.—Announcement that Senator William M. Butler of Massachusetts, Republican, who is seeking reelection this autumn is to open a downtown office for the benefit of Massachusetts businessmen and constituents generally is indicative of the extent to which the Republican national chairman is anxious to go to win.
The cry has been started from one end of Massachusetts to the other already that unless Mr. Butler is re-elected there is scant chance of Massachusetts having a president of the United States for another term.
Although Mr. Coolidge himself has thus far refrained from showing his personal interest in the Massachusetts campaign he is aware of what the critics will say if Massachusetts elects a Democrat to the United States senate. Former Senator David Walsh is certain to be the Democratic nominee, and he ran way ahead of his ticket in 1924 when Mr. Coolidge carried the state by an overwhelming majority.

CLOSE FIGHT
So to add, what might otherwise be a simple situation, the Republicans realize that they must defeat an extraordinarily good campaigner. There is a widespread feeling of the senate, however, an unusual confidence among the Republican leaders. Mr. Coolidge has been told repeatedly that Mr. Butler is certain to win. Being a veteran politician himself he has taken this with a grain of salt, but reports reaching here indicate that he feels that the Butler situation has materially improved in recent months.
The argument most commonly advanced is that former Senator Walsh drew a large number of Republican votes in 1924 and that his victories in Massachusetts have been largely the result of Republican aid. What the Butler chiefs now are doing is laying a foundation to prevent the giving of that aid. They are arguing with Republicans that it is really Mr. Coolidge's political future that is at stake. The Boston Herald, a staunch Republican paper, has come out editorially with the challenge to Republicans of Massachusetts to stand by Mr. Coolidge or run the risk of losing the only president the Bay State has had in the White House for generations. The Herald states the case very explicitly, namely, that Mr. Coolidge cannot be re-nominated if his own state repudiates him.

WATCH MASSACHUSETTS
The truth is the other candidates for the presidential nomination are watching Massachusetts and they will not hesitate in lining up delegates to contend that it would be better to respect the tradition of Massachusetts, of course, that Massachusetts has spoken adversely in the Butler-Walsh campaign.
If, on the other hand, Senator Butler wins, the Coolidge forces will have their case strengthened in seeking delegates for the 1928 convention. It could then be contended that the third term of Mr. Coolidge was won on an issue and that Massachusetts had approved the idea.

PLANES IN COMMERCIAL TOUR LEAVE MOLINE

Moline, Ill.—(AP)—The 20 planes in the second commercial reliability aviation tour took off from Moline air port for Indianapolis at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, after having received one of the greatest receptions on the route.

The fliers were led by J. R. Williams in an Eagle Rock. Williams arrived at Moline airport six hours late having been forced down near Kansas City by engine trouble.
J. W. Livingstone who arrived at Moline airport a few minutes before 10 o'clock Tuesday was second. Livingstone like Williams had experienced engine trouble.

SHEIK ILL

RUDOLPH VALENTINO

SHEIK FIGHTS FOR HIS LIFE IN HOSPITAL

Physicians Hopeful Over Condition of Valentino Tuesday

New York.—(AP)—Although visitors were still refused permission to see Rudolph Valentino Tuesday, the screen star's condition was said in an official bulletin by his physicians not to be such as to cause undue anxiety.

The bulletin was signed by three doctors and read:
"Mr. Valentino passed a fairly comfortable night. There is no change to cause undue anxiety. Temperature 101.4; pulse 100; respiration 22."

Joseph Schenck, producer of Valentino's pictures, and his wife Norma Talma, called at the hospital but were told it was inadvisable to admit visitors as yet.

His physicians have revealed that local peritonitis had already developed when the film star was operated on Sunday night for appendicitis and a gastric ulcer. Peritonitis, poisoning the doctors say usually becomes general and when it does the patient dies.

The strong resistance of the screen actor's splendid physique is regarded as his only hope. Valentino has the most expensive and one of the largest suites in the hospital, but there has not been enough room in it for all the flowers sent him by admirers and many were sent to the rooms of other patients. The hospital telephone switchboard was swamped with inquiries about him. A special waiting room was set aside for callers. His suite is the one occupied by Mary Pickford when she had a serious illness in 1912.

POLA TO VISIT HIM
Among telegrams of sympathy was one from Jack Dempsey and his wife, Estelle Taylor, of screen land. Pola Negri, who announced recently that she was engaged to Valentino on trial, said in Los Angeles that she would take the first train to New York to see him after she finished the picture on which she is working.

Valentino has asked several times about Miss Negri and has sent a telegram to her saying he is recovering. He has not been allowed to read any telegrams sent to him.

A report that Valentino's first wife, Jean Acker, has called at the hospital is denied by his manager, S. George Ullman.

The screen shell's life is insured for a million in favor of his producer, Joseph M. Schenck.

Paul Smiths, N. Y.—(AP)—While the petition of the Knights of Columbus asking that the United States intervene in Mexico to protect Catholic churches in their religious dispute with President Calles was not referred to directly, it was reiterated Tuesday at the summer executive offices in behalf of the President Coolidge that the Washington government has no authority under diplomatic usage, international law or treaty rights to interfere in the purely domestic affairs of Mexico.

Whenever the rights of American citizens in person or property have been infringed, it was added, the American government will do what it can to see that these rights are duly respected.

Secretary Kellogg of the state department who is a guest at the summer white house has informed President Coolidge that he has knowledge of but one complaint concerning the taking of church property in Mexico. This was lodged with James R. Sheffield, the American ambassador to that country and the latter, on making representations to the Mexico City government has been informed the case would be adjusted.

GIVE MENASHA SCHOOL MAN STATE OFFICE

O. H. Plenzke, Former Lawrence Student, Appointed Assistant Superintendent

Madison.—(AP)—O. H. Plenzke, city superintendent of schools at Menasha has been appointed assistant state superintendent of public instruction, Superintendent John Callahan announced Tuesday. He succeeded C. J. Anderson, who becomes associate professor of education at the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Plenzke is president of the State City Superintendent's association and former president of the Northeastern Teachers' association and Fox River Valley Schoolmasters' club. After being graduated from West Bend high school in 1907 he taught a country school in Washington-co for two years.

He was graduated from the Oshkosh Normal school in 1911 and became principal of the state graded school at Nekeosa. Later he attended Lawrence college from which he graduated in 1914, and received a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1916. He was principal of the Menasha high school in 1914-16 and the Lincoln school of Madison in 1916-18. Since 1918, he has been city superintendent at Menasha.

Mr. Anderson has been assistant state superintendent for five years. He was formerly city superintendent of schools at Stoughton.

Madison.—(AP)—Being the Burgess of the Oshkosh Yacht club, the "Hope," owned by Walter and Eddie Lehr, and skippered by the latter, won the class "E" race by a margin of more than three minutes here Friday, the second day of the Inland Lakes Yachting association regatta. The time was 1:56:27.

The "Mistral" VII, with the pennant of the Pine Lake Yacht club at its masthead, owned and skippered by James A. Friend, made the eight mile windward and leeward course in 1:59:47, coming in second. Saine Reiter, of the Minnetonka Yacht club, piloted the "Tomahawk" in 1:59:52 for third place.

Oshkosh.—(AP)—Sixty-one of the fastest sailing crafts in the world spread their sails on Lake Winnebago under the hands of yachtsmen of the Inland Lakes Yachting association on the opening day of their twenty-ninth annual regatta here Monday. The boats flew the burgees of 10 middle-western yacht clubs.

The "Haywire" flying the pennant of the Oshkosh Yacht club, owned and skippered by John Buckstaff took the first race in the "A" class, making the 12 mile triangular course in 1:34:11, and winning the Commodore Gilbert trophy. Fifteen boats were entered in the "A" race.

The "Red Raven" with its owner, A. J. Hill of the Minnetonka Yacht club at the helm, flashed across the line 47 seconds later and the "Caprice" with Starke Meyer of Pewaukee, at the rudder, came in third in 1:37:33.

The "Seapuss" of the Neenah-Nodaway club and the "Faith" of Oshkosh were disqualified for crossing the line before the starting gun, and after the preparatory signal had been given.

On the first leg of the race, the "Blue Heron" of Lake Geneva, spilled and assistance was given by a patrol launch which resulted in the boat being disqualified.

GIRL BANDIT SCORES MEN

Mildred Hogan, 21, held in Chicago as an accomplice of a gang of robbers, says she doesn't think much of men. Show 'em a little knee and smile at 'em, she says, and they're yours. She used to lure chance acquaintances around dark corners where her confederates would tap them on the heads with blackjacks and rifle their pockets—at least, that's what the Chicago police charged when they arrested her.

BANK ROBBER BEGINS TERM IN STATE PEN

Uncover Plot to Aid Bandit Escape on Way to Serve Sentence in Waupun

Waupun.—(AP)—Matt McNeil, who confessed to robbery while armed in connection with the holdup of the Northwestern National bank in December 1924, Milwaukee's first bank robbery, arrived here late Monday to begin a sentence of from 2 to 25 years.

McNeil was sentenced in Milwaukee shortly after 3 p. m. Monday and was placed aboard a train less than an hour later enroute here. The Milwaukee sheriff did not follow the usual custom of bringing the prisoner here by automobile due to an announcement by Eugene Wengert, county attorney that a plot to release McNeil from his guard while on the way here from Milwaukee had been uncovered.

PLAN ESCAPE
According to Mr. Wengert, underworld friends of McNeil had planned to attack the Sheriff's car bearing McNeil and release him. The plan came to the attention of the authorities from a faction opposed to the release of McNeil, which it has been said from time to time was responsible for his arrest at Superior several weeks ago, when with several others he was arrested after the police of that city had become suspicious of a group of men riding in an automobile. When the arrest was made all of the men were heavily armed and had stopped the machine in which they were riding in front of a bank in the center of the city.

McNeil was with five other men at the time of the robbery of the Milwaukee bank. Since his arrest police have made every effort to have him tell who accompanied him on the raid but he stoutly refused and last word coming from the authorities before his sentence was that he had held true to the tradition of his kind and refused to divulge names.

When asked what he thought of the story of a conspiracy to have him released, McNeil said: "all bunk of course, it was the idea of some $10 forger trying to get out of jail and passed on by some officials."

WEATHER CONDITIONS DELAY AIR MAIL FLIERS
Chicago.—(AP)—The airmail plane which left Chicago for Kansas City Tuesday was forced down by fog at Aurora, Ill., but resumed its flight after an hour's delay.

The east bound transcontinental mail plane was delayed until nearly 11 A. M. arriving at Chicago, while at that hour the westbound plane had not arrived from Cleveland, where it had been delayed by adverse weather.

MAY REVISE RATES ON WESTERN TRUNK LINE
Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Recognizing the need for a comprehensive revision of class rates in Western trunk line territory, the interstate commerce commission Tuesday called a conference of railroads and shippers to be held at Chicago on Sept. 10 to determine a course of procedure.

Kenosha, Wis.—(AP)—Three men were tied for first place in the Wisconsin Open Golf championship at the Kenosha Country club at the end of the play of the first eighteen holes in the 72 hole grind for the 1926 championship. Buddy Russell, Milwaukee, an amateur was tied with Frank Walsh, Appleton, and Francis Gallett, Milwaukee, professionals with 75, the low score for the day up to 2 P. M.

A high northwest wind was blowing across the course, making it difficult to control pitch shots. The greens are lightning fast. Many strokes were lost on the tricky greens.

Scores registered for the morning round follow:
Jack Blakeslee, Kenosha, present champion 38-33-76.
Alex Wilmont, Milwaukee 38-33-76.
J. J. Barry, Eau Claire, 38-33-77.
Morgan Manchester, Madison, amateur 38-33-77.
William Robertson, Milwaukee, 38-42-78.
Bobby Deguire, Wisconsin Rapids, 38-43-79.
Billy Sixty, Milwaukee, amateur, 38-43-79.
Lloyd Locke, Lake Geneva, 38-41-79.
Paul Johnson, Sheboygan, 38-41-79.

Zimmerman Officials Deny Editor's Charge
Madison.—(AP)—The office of Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman denied Tuesday that William T. Eby, local newspaper editor or "any" one purporting to represent him had been refused permission to copy names on the nomination papers of Senator Lenroot.

No request for permission to copy the names was received prior to the issuance of a writ of mandamus by Judge A. C. Hoppmann on petition of Mr. Eby Monday demanding that the nomination papers public, according to the statement issued Tuesday by L. B. Nagler, cashier in Mr. Zimmerman's office.

The statements declared that certified copies of the nomination papers could have been obtained upon application to the secretary of state and characterized the editor's move as "a shady political trick." The statement issued by Mr. Nagler follows:
"Neither William T. Eby nor any one purporting to represent him in any capacity has ever requested permission of the secretary of state or of Mr. Brown, the filing clerk, to copy the names on the nomination papers of Mr. Zimmerman."

papers of Irvine I. Lenroot and therefore such request has not been refused or denied.
"A person who said his name is Peavey and that he is a son of Congressman Peavey of Washburn and had been refused permission to copy names on the nomination papers of Senator Lenroot. He also asked for and was granted permission to copy the names of those who circulated said nomination papers, and he did copy such names. Mr. Peavey did not ask permission to copy the names of the signers, neither has any other person, at any time, requested such permission and such permission was not refused or denied to anyone at any time."
"Section 14.29 (9) of the statutes provides a means whereby anyone may obtain certified copies of any document on file in the state department, and had Mr. Eby been less interested in playing a shady political trick on behalf of the Madison ring he would have taken advantage of this provision instead of appealing to the court and falsely accusing Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman of refusing a request that was not made."

LILLIAN CANNON FAILS IN FIRST TRY AT CHANNEL

Cape, Griz.—(AP)—Miss Lillian Cannon of Baltimore failed in her first effort to swim the English channel. A sudden storm accompanied by thunder and lightning with the prospect of still worse weather to come, forced her to quit the water after having been swimming for two hours and 35 minutes.

Miss Cannon took to the water here at 12:35 o'clock Tuesday morning and at 2 o'clock was swimming fast two miles out in the channel headed toward Folkestone, England. At that time the clouds indicated the approach of a thunderstorm. The sea was calm.

Suddenly around 3:30 o'clock the storm broke, and with it came heavy seas. The expert on the boat following the swimmer ordered her out of the water. She demurred saying she desired to keep at her task. Finally when told that it would be useless for her to go on she came out of the water. Miss Cannon plans to make another attempt within a few days.

MAIL PLANE WILL RESUME DAILY SERVICE
Chicago-St. Paul Line Operates After Being Suspended a Day

Chicago.—(AP)—Air mail service between Chicago and St. Paul was resumed Tuesday after a one day break in the schedule encountered when Charles J. Dickinson of Chicago, the contractor, sought government release from his obligation.

The St. Paul bound mail plane took off at 9 A. M., central standard time without waiting for either the west bound or eastbound transcontinental planes, both of which were delayed outside Chicago.

Mr. Dickinson said he expected the St. Paul-Chicago mail planes to be continued on a basis of five days a week rather than seven.

"Owing to existing circumstances and conditions it may or may not be continued 45 days," he said.

Mr. Dickinson is under $12,000 bond to give that much notice before cessation of service. He would not elaborate his statement, further than to say that the financial return was not the governing factor in his desire to drop out of the mail service.

"I have been losing money, the postoffice department and I agreed that there would be no money in it and I never expected to make any money from the service."

CHARGE IS BIG SHOCK
The shock of the word, "you are charged with the murder of Don R. Mellett," was declared by Roach to have been the immediate cause of Mazer's collapse.

Until Bernstein gave voice to the charge against him, Mazer had been kept in ignorance of the real cause for his arrest and detention in county jail overnight.

From Mazer authorities hope to obtain admission that will enable the immediate and complete solution of the case.

In the office of United States District Attorney A. E. Bernstein, Mazer will face practically all of the investigators into the murder of Don R. Mellett, from Canton with Steve Kascholk the "mysterious informer" who says that for a while he lent a sympathetic ear to the plot to put Mellett out of the way and later backed down when he "got cold feet." Michael J. Glenn, Indianapolis detective, Monday night swore to the affidavit charged with murder.

ARRESTED ON WET CHARGE
Mazer, at whom the finger of suspicion was pointed by some investigators shortly after the murder of the militant editor-crusader on July 16, because of his alleged activities in the underworld, is the first to be formally charged with the murder. He is in Cuyahoga-co jail following his arrest Monday on a charge of liquor conspiracy. He is to be arraigned on the charge Tuesday.

Carl Studer, Canton, alleged "business partner" of Mazer in underworld activities, and until recently joint owner with him of a Canton pool room, held on a liquor conspiracy charge also.

Kascholk, according to the investigators has identified Mazer's automobile as the one which he and Patrick Eugene McDermott wanted as a "key man" in the investigation were driven from Massillon to Canton to inspect Mellett's home, a few days before the murder.

COUNT 2,315 FEWER CARS ON STATE HIGHWAY

Traffic Count Shows Sharp
Decrease in Use of State
Road

A decrease of 2,315 vehicles of all kinds was registered in Sunday's traffic count of the Outagamie-co Highway committee, when compared with the count for the corresponding day of 1925 a decrease of 2,125 when compared with the corresponding count for 1924; and a decrease of 1,713 vehicles of all kinds when compared with the corresponding count for 1923.

Sunday's count showed a total of 3,484 vehicles of all kinds, compared with 5,799 in 1925, 5,610 in 1924 and 5,187 in 1923.

When compared with the corresponding count for 1925, Sunday's traffic census shows decreases of all vehicles except motorcycles, of which four more were registered than in 1925. Following are comparative figures of Sunday and the corresponding date for last year:

Wisconsin cars 3,001, against 5,117 in 1925; cars from other states 321 against 447 last year; light motor trucks 32, compared with 81 in 1925; heavy motor trucks 101, against 128 last year; motorcycles 26, compared with 22 in 1925 horse-drawn vehicles 3, against 4 in 1925.

In all cases the count was taken on Highway 15, at the intersection of E. Wisconsin-ave, with Leninwah-ave.

GRUNDEMAN 2ND IN RIFLE SHOOT

Appleton Captain Barely
Nosed Out by Neenah
Marksman

Captain E. F. Grundeman of Co. D, 157th Infantry, Wisconsin National Guard, finished second in individual honors in the annual shoot of the Fox River Rifle and Pistol association at the Neenah range Sunday. Private Schneller of Co. I, Neenah, led the marksmen with 331 out of a possible 350, nosing out the local man by one point. Firing conditions were ideal and many good scores were made. Co. D finished fourth in the shoot with the howitzer company, Waupaca, first; headquarters company, Menasha, second; Co. I, Neenah, third; and Co. L, Jefferson, fifth. Eight Appleton shooters, led by Capt. Grundeman, scored 1,657 points out of a possible 2,100. Records of the local shoot are:

Capt. Grundeman, 330 out of 350; Sergeant Maurice Peterson, 211 out of 250; Sergeant Van Ryan, 208 out of 250; Lieutenant Herbert Piette, 199 out of 250; Private Harriman, 193 out of 250; Sergeant Van Ooyen, 185 out of 250; Sergeant Donovan, 166 out of 250; Sergeant Kerrigan, 165 out of 250.

BELL TAILORS IS ONLY TRADE NAME, SAYS C. C.

Suits and overcoats offered for sale by the Bell International Tailors, which recently opened a branch clothing store here for several weeks, represented a quality in proportion to the price, according to the Appleton Chamber of Commerce. Although the firm advertised two suits or a suit and overcoat for sale at $29.50, each was worth no more than half that price, the information bureau of the chamber of commerce states.

Bell International Tailors is only a trade name, the bureau pointed out. It has no assets or liabilities, and it seldom remains in any particular place for any length of time.

The firm operated a clothing store in the Rossmessel block for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Winters of Fond du Lac were Appleton visitors Monday.

TWO CARS DAMAGED IN CRASH NEAR MEDINA

Sedans, owned by Stanley A. Cieslewicz of Koshkott, and Guy S. Conrad of Superior, were damaged in a collision Sunday night two miles east of Medina on highway 18. The Cieslewicz car, driven by a brother of the owner, was badly damaged, the engine left side being wrecked, the other machine received a broken wheel and fender. No one was seriously injured.

BIGGEST CROWD ON RECORD HEARS CONCERT BY BAND

Director Wants Motorists to Keep Cars Quiet While Band Plays

The 120th Field Artillery band was welcomed here in royal fashion Monday evening at Pierce park by the largest crowd at a band concert this year. The band returned Saturday afternoon from two weeks at Camp Robinson and Monday's concert was its homecoming program.

Request numbers and popular selections formed a program which pleased the crowd and kept the players busy responding with encores. At least two and often three encores were played after every piece on the program. Among the selections were Nola, Rose Marie, Eleanor, a concert waltz; the overture, Zampa; American Fantasia, a group of southern melodies; and Home Sweet Home the World Over, the concluding number.

An effort is being made to prevent cars from starting during the number or coming in or leaving the park while the band is playing, according to Edward F. Mumm, conductor of the band. Cars should move in and out between numbers, Mr. Mumm said. At one concert an arrest was made for a motorist using a cutout and at the concert next Tuesday evening motorists who persist in running their cars while selections are being played will be taken into custody by the police.

Plans for next Tuesday's concert include seats for 5,000 people and special soloists. Mr. Mumm said. J. P. Frank, Appleton attorney will welcome the band and will deliver a short address. A splendid program of music also is being arranged.

BOILER CO. GETS $578 JUDGMENT

Construction Company Loses
Suit Started by Appleton
Firm

A judgment for $578.71 was granted Monday in municipal court to the Northern Boiler and Structural Iron works, in a suit brought against the Wisconsin Engineering Construction Co., for goods and installation costs sold to the latter. In the suit the board of trustees and the building committee of the Methodist Episcopal church, who are indebted to the Wisconsin Engineering Construction Co., were made parties by a grant of action, and these were directed to make payment to the Northern Boiler and Structural Iron works.

NO TRACE OF BURGLARS IN DENTAL OFFICES

No trace of the burglar or burglars who entered the offices of five Appleton dentists between Saturday noon and Monday morning and carried off more than $200 in silver, gold, plate and money, has been found by police here. It is believed that the burglars left the city shortly after they had obtained the money and

WISCONSIN 4TH IN PAPER MAKING, LIONS ARE TOLD

Radsch Tells Luncheon Club of the Romance of Paper
Industry

"Paper mills in Wisconsin produce $50,000,000 worth of paper products annually," R. M. Radsch, superintendent of Thimpany Pulp and Paper company, Kaukauna, said in an address to the Appleton Lions club at its noon day luncheon in the Conway hotel Monday.

Wisconsin ranks fourth among the 48 states in the manufacture of paper. It pays $25,000,000 in wages to the 15,000 employees each year.

The paper industry originated in China, about 100 years after Christ. It passed into Germany in the fourteenth or fifteenth centuries, thence into England, and finally Fourdrinier introduced paper making machinery, which, with few variations, employed the same methods as are used in the paper industry today. Into France, in 1730, in 1800, about 3,000 tons of paper was made in this country, while in 1926, 7,000,000 tons is being manufactured.

Pulpwood is the chief substance used in the manufacture of paper to day. Chemical pulp is made three ways by the sulphite process, sulphate and soda. There also is a mechanical process from which most news print paper is made. This is known as the ground-wood method. For every ton of paper manufactured in the United States a total output of $100,000 is required, including the cost of the operation of the mill. Between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 cords of timber, chiefly spruce, are used annually in the paper industry in the United States and it is being taken out much faster than it can be replaced by natural growth.

ROUSE SHERIFF AT 3 A. M. TO QUELL FREE FOR ALL ROW

Sheriff Peter Schwartz was summoned from peaceful slumbers about 3:30 Sunday morning by a persistent telephone bell, followed by an excited voice which told him to come and quell a fight which threatened to develop into a free-for-all in the vicinity of the Harry Stuts soft drink parlor on E. Wisconsin-ave, to the great danger of the peace of the community. The fight was lively while it lasted, according to report, but the sheriff arrived to find a darkened building inside and a few loiterers outside. The loiterers he ordered to go home. Sounds of revelry and joy unconfined issued from a neighboring building, however, and Sheriff Schwartz invited himself to a "private party" just long enough to tell them to quiet down a bit. "Next time there may be a few arrests," Sheriff Schwartz commented Monday.

SIX FACE COURT FOR VIOLATION OF TRAFFIC LAWS

Five Speeders and One Reckless Driver Hear Judge Say
"$10 and Costs"

Five speeders and one reckless driver faced Judge Theodore Berg Monday morning in municipal court, as the result of activities of city and county police during the weekend. All entered pleas of guilty to the charges, and each was fined $10 and costs.

Charles Montie of Kaukauna, who was charged with reckless driving Sunday on highway 15, in the town of Kaukauna, by Andrew Miller, Outagamie-co motorcycle officer, paid a fine of $10 and costs of $3.70, after admitting his guilt in court.

Fines of $10 and costs of $3.20 were paid by the following, each of whom pleaded guilty of speeding:

Earl Brochman, 644 N. Center-st., arrested 12:05 Monday morning for driving an automobile at 35 miles an hour on S. Onelda-st.

Steven Konz, 606 N. Onelda-st., arrested at 1:20 Monday morning for speeding at 40 miles an hour on N. Richmond-st.

Ray Schuler, Neenah, arrested Sunday for driving an automobile at 27 miles an hour on E. North-st.

Floyd Laabs, 1330 E. Wisconsin-ave., arrested Sunday morning for speeding on W. Prospect-st. at 27 miles an hour.

Earl Riggles, 1525 W. College-ave., arrested late Saturday evening for traveling at 31 miles an hour on S. Onelda-st.

Alvin Wehman, 1205 E. Pacific-st., who was arrested by Appleton police late Sunday evening on the charge of driving his car at 27 miles an hour on W. College-ave, did not appear Monday in municipal court.

REGISTRATION DAY IS TUESDAY, AUGUST 31

Tuesday, Aug. 31, will be registration day for the primary election on Tuesday, Sept. 7, it was announced Tuesday by E. L. Williams, city clerk. On this day the election board will prepare the list of qualified voters for the primary election, and non-registered voters may register. To be a qualified voter, the law requires residence of one year in the state and of ten days in the voting precinct.

MUST HAVE TWO LICENSE PLATES TO AVOID COURT

Police Demand Motorists See That Cars Are Fully Equipped

Appleton police were instructed Monday by Chief Prim to arrest drivers of all automobiles carrying only one license plate. Chief Prim explained that all automobiles are required by law to be equipped with two plates, and that failure to comply with the law subjects the driver to arrest.

"This law will be strictly enforced in Appleton hereafter," declared Chief Prim Tuesday morning. "If they desire to avoid appearance in court, motorists must take steps to equip their machines with the extra plates at once."

A fine of $10 and costs of $3.20 was imposed Monday morning on Jack Sandon, Broad-st., Menasha, a representative of the Rossmessel Motor Co., of this city, who was arrested Monday afternoon on the charge of driving an automobile carrying only one license plate.

A similar charge brought against Kenneth Hungerford of Oshkosh, was dismissed Tuesday morning by Judge Theodore Berg when Hungerford told the court that he lost the other license plate while he was on his way to Appleton.

It is understood that several other drivers of cars with only one license plate were stopped by Appleton police, but were released when they proved that they have made applications for new plates.

SPEEDER, RECKLESS DRIVER, PAY FINES

Louis Kiwitz, arrested Sunday by a county motorcycle officer for reckless driving in the village of Hortonville, appeared Monday in municipal court and pleaded guilty to the charge. He paid the usual fine of $10 and costs of $4.30.

Arrested Sunday by a county motorcycle officer on a charge of driving an automobile at 45 miles an hour in the town of Grand Chute, Warren Schuler admitted his guilt Monday in municipal court. He paid a fine of $10 and costs.

FAKE OFFICER IS ORDERED TO GET OUT OF COUNTY

Police Learn Prisoner Has Spent Years in Insane Asylum

William L. Vansteevenburgh, alias William A. Cook, who was arrested by Appleton police last week on a charge of impersonating a federal officer, was released from custody Monday afternoon by Judge Theodore Berg in municipal court. Vansteevenburgh was ordered to leave Outagamie-co at once a message received by Police Chief Prim from the police department at Hartford, Conn., stated that Vansteevenburgh was committed to Connecticut Hospital for the Insane on four occasions, twice in 1917, in 1920 and in 1921, on charges including breach of the peace, issuing forged checks, and false pretenses.

WANTED IN EAST
Connecticut police also informed Chief Prim that they hold a warrant for Vansteevenburgh under the name of Roy Morris, but that they will not incur the expense of having him returned to Hartford.

Vansteevenburgh was accompanied by his 17-year-old wife, who he married at Albany, N. Y., June 8. He gave his age as 25, but police here have reason to believe that he is older. When arrested he declared that he and his wife were hiking to Butte, Mont. Vansteevenburgh ordered household goods from merchants of various cities.

To The Voters of Outagamie County

A report is being circulated that if I am elected sheriff of Outagamie County, I will make a certain appointment for under-sheriff.

I wish to say that such reports are false, and are purely propaganda. I have made no promise to anyone for the position of under-sheriff or deputy sheriff. It is against the law to make such a promise.

If I am elected sheriff, I promise the voters of Outagamie County that all appointments made by me will be reputable men and citizens of our county. I further promise that if I am elected sheriff, I will serve the people honestly and faithfully.

HAWAIIAN FLIGHT HERO COMMANDS NEW U. S. PLANES

Commander Rogers Happy
When He Is Relieved of Desk Duty

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington—A cockpit for a swivel chair, a joy-stick for a pencil!
When Commander John Rodgers, U. S. N., hero of the Hawaiian flight, was forced to make that trade, it nearly killed him. An inside job for John Rodgers! An office aviator!
No doubt but that Secretary of the Navy Wilbur thought he was giving a fitting reward when he made the fier assistant chief of naval aeronautics. But he actually made him the most unhappy man in Washington.
Since January 1, Rodgers has fidgeted and fumed—fumed silently, though. When it comes to maintaining silence, John Rodgers makes Calvin Coolidge sound loquacious. As a conversationalist, he is an excellent aviator.
A recent order from Wilbur has brought a swift transition in Rodgers' state of mind. He is going back to active duty, where he belongs and where he asked to be sent. "Captain Emory S. Land will succeed him in the bureau of aeronautics."
The man who flew from San Francisco nearly to Hawaii, was forced down because his fuel gave out, drifted for nine days in the Pacific, was given up for lost and finally made the islands by a near miracle, is going to take the navy's newest seaplane squadron and see what he can do with it.
The government is just finishing two new super-seaplanes at the Philadelphia navy yard. There's considerable secrecy about them. They're the PN-10 and the PN-11, which doesn't mean much, but, at any rate, they are improvements and enlargements on the PN-9, in which Rodgers almost, but not quite, flew from San Francisco to Hawaii.
He wanted to command those planes and the job was turned over to him.
He'll see what he can do at long distance, scouting from a fleet.
He'll see what he can do, operating with his squadron as an independent unit, from a shore base.
He'll test the possibility of trans-ocean hops.
Rodgers doesn't know what he will be able to accomplish. He doesn't like to make promises—which is a considerable different attitude from that of a good many aviators. The typical aviator is an enthusiast—imaginative.
Rodgers is hard-boiled and practical. He performs, if performance is possible. He'll try anything, even though he doesn't know what the result will be until he has tried it.
His face is grim. When he does feel

BOGAN, MUENCH CASES BEFORE SUPREME COURT

High Tribunal Sets Date for Hearing Appeal of Men in Prison

Hearing by the Wisconsin Supreme court in the appeal from the municipal court convictions of Wilbur Bogan of Little Chute, and George Muench of Appleton, has been set for Sept. 18. Appeal was taken by Keller and Keller, counsel for the defendants, on a writ of error.
Bogan and Muench, who now are in state prison, were found guilty in April of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to rob, and were sentenced for terms of from one to ten years in the penitentiary.
The appeal declares that the court admitted improper evidence, the assistant district attorney "argued matters highly prejudicial and outside of the record to the jury," and that the court "erred and failed to instruct properly in the law."
The appeal maintains that the assistant district attorney argued matters outside of the record when he referred to previous convictions of Muench. It also alleges that it was the duty of the court to instruct the jury that if it found no felonious intent it could find the defendants guilty of simple assault. The court failed to so instruct the jury, the bill of exceptions states.
Moved to speak, you'll hear him. He's a sea dog, accustomed to making himself heard from the quarter deck to the crow's nest.
"No, I'll make no predictions. This is experimental."
That much he said—no more—about his new venture. If he has any guesses to offer, they are his secrets. But you can see that he is happy in the prospect of active duty again, for he has traded back his swivel chair for a cockpit, his pencil for a joy-stick.

UTILITY STOCKS WATERED, PERRY TELLS AUDIENCE

Conservative Candidate for Governor Assails Rate
Commission

Portage—(P)—Charles E. Perry, aspirant for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, declared in a speech here Monday night that the people of Wisconsin "have had saddled upon them an interest charge upon 'watered' and overcapitalized utility issues."
Speaking on the rates of railways, telephone, telegraph, street railway, lighting and power companies, he criticized the state railroad commission.
"I am willing to concede," he said, "that these rates for this kind of service have gone up as has everything else. I am not willing, however, to concede that all this additional burden is a justifiable cost and believe some of it is due to lack of proper law enforcement on the part of those who have much to say about exercising a duty to the public when they are candidates for office only to forget all about it after they have been elected."

WATERED STOCK
"Based upon investigations I have made, it is my firm belief that the people of Wisconsin have had saddled upon them in perpetuity an interest charge upon 'watered' and overcapitalized utility issues so big and in some instances so flagrantly in excess of actual investments, that this fact materially effects the charges made for service and rates. I want to make this plain to you. The law contemplates and the highest courts have so decided, that utility corporations are entitled to earn a reasonable return upon actual money invested in these enterprises. Our own supreme court, here in Wisconsin, has sustained the doctrine that a 7 per cent return upon money so invested, is reasonable."

"I want to call your attention to the Republican platform on this subject. As a candidate for governor on that platform, I want to say here and now, that if I am elected governor not a single permit relating to the authorization of security issues by the utility companies in Wisconsin will be sanctioned except upon the basis of money actually invested. No company, domestic or foreign, should be allowed to buy up our water powers and to recapitalize at aggregate figures far in excess of actual prices paid and the cost of actual improvements made. I am convinced that a strict adherence to such a policy if it has been pursued

BLAINE'S POLITICS

The first requisite to public confidence a candidate for office should possess is personal honor, integrity and fairness. They are the primary foundations of a man's usefulness and "squareness" as a public servant. Without them he cannot be relied upon to do what is right, no matter what his professions.

The methods used by Governor Blaine in his campaign for the senatorship have raised precisely this question of personal honor and political rectitude. His misrepresentation of facts has from the beginning stamped him as an unscrupulous politician. When called to account for these breaches of "square shooting" he has replied with more flagrant offenses. His latest deserves special mention.

Mr. Blaine is now stating in his addresses that the Congressional Record shows that out of 207 roll-calls Senator Lenroot was absent 159 times, present and answered to his name 48 times and paired 11 times. The purpose of this is of course to show that Senator Lenroot shirks the responsibilities of his office and is not discharging his duties. But Mr. Blaine knew this was not the fact when he made the statement; he knew there was a good and valid reason for Mr. Lenroot's absence at that particular time, yet he makes no explanation, merely stating the bald fact with its unpleasant inference.

Senator Lenroot himself makes the explanation in these words: "This is a fair sample of the campaign Governor Blaine is carrying on. He takes the Congressional Record at a time when I was ill for many weeks in the spring of 1924 and unable to attend the sessions of the senate . . . And then he takes the record at a time when Mrs. Lenroot was very ill in Rochester, Minn., and I was in constant attendance upon her. During that winter of 1924-5 he will find that I answered more roll-calls than did the late Senator La Follette, who was himself ill."

There is just one way to characterize this kind of campaign trickery, and Mr. Lenroot used it when he pronounced it "contemptible." No fair-minded citizen can subscribe to such methods, for they go beyond issues of policy and touch questions of personal honor. A candidate who will resort to them is not only NOT a square shooter, but by so doing marks himself as unfit to hold any office of public trust.

THE TROUBLE IN MEXICO

There are some things the state department can do in the Mexican situation, and there are some things it cannot do. It can hold the Mexican government to account for acts of hostility toward American citizens in Mexico, and can demand protection for them and respect for their property rights. It cannot interfere in the religious controversy, that is in the government's domestic regulation of religious worship. It cannot tell Mexico what it shall or shall not do about religion. It may not be a simple matter to draw the line between interference in domestic affairs and intervention in behalf of rights and property of American citizens, nevertheless, the distinction must be made and our policy controlled by this principle.

Unless there is prompt and decisive action at Washington in determining the course this country will take, we are apt to have the troubles in Mexico dragged into our own politics. The Knights of Columbus, a Catholic organization, is bringing pressure to bear on the state department to make representations to Mexico on the subject. Whether it would go beyond the principle of non-intervention in Mexico's domestic affairs may not be clear, although press dispatches say the demand is that this government take steps to put an end merely to the persecution of American citizens. If that is as far as it is proposed to go, Washington ought to act, provided of course it is established there is persecution.

If, however, the plan is to draw the United States into the purely religious dispute in Mexico, it must be rejected. The government will have to use its best judgment in determining its policy, holding strictly to well established principles of international law. If it does not, and allows extraneous influence to enter, it will find itself immediately involved in politics, and that above everything should be avoided. The Ku Klux Klan is watching every move with a hawk-like purpose to make politics out of anything that can be construed as yielding to Catholic pressure. Of course, the government should pay no attention to pressure of any kind, either for or against intervention, that serves no other purpose than to draw the issue into politics. It should endeavor, and we have no doubt it will endeavor, to hold to a course of action strictly in line with international law and precedent, and that first of all it will scrupulously observe the sovereignty of the republic of Mexico.

We think the people can have confidence that President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg will handle the matter wisely and soundly, and that their ultimate decision will be the correct one. It is important that we keep politics out of our foreign policies. It is especially so in our relations with Mexico, which are always more or less on edge and carry grave potentialities if subjected to politics.

COMIC REFORM

The American people are to be "reformed" again by legislation. This time the casus belli is tobacco. The Anti-Cigarette league, which is an organization of fanatics, announces it is to engage in a campaign to stamp out the use of tobacco in any form. It does not propose to confine its efforts in this direction to education, but promises to follow in the footsteps of the Anti-Saloon league and have the use of tobacco forbidden by law. In other words, we are to have another constitutional amendment patterned after the 18th, and an enforcement act à la Volstead.

The announcement makes interesting newspaper reading, but farther than that it belongs to the comedy of light entertainment. The American people have had too much of the Eighteenth amendment to embark on another such venture soon. Besides, what is all the excitement over tobacco about? Probably 90 per cent of the men use it, and some women—we would not attempt to say what percentage. Some persons, lacking in common sense or will power, use it to extremes and perhaps suffer. As many more do so in eating, dancing, golfing and a hundred and one other things. For the most part, tobacco does comparatively little harm. Insurance companies are not finicky about tobacco-smokers as risks, and they are not asleep on life hazards these days. If boys could be kept away from cigarettes while they are maturing there would be nothing to complain about, and that is a matter of parental responsibility and not of the state. On the whole, tobacco smoking is to be defended as an innocent outlet for strain, emotion and freaks of temperament. Take away innocent dissipations, and vicious ones will succeed them; or else we will become a race of mollycoddles.

We have had enough of sumptuary legislation in this country to last a century—we were going to say forever, and we are not sure but what that would be nearer correct. Too many of our people believe the Eighteenth amendment was a colossal blunder, and that the liquor problem could have been better handled in other ways, to risk another experiment of the kind with personal liberty. If we cannot reform ourselves except by law we would far better remain unreformed.

Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Noted Physician and Author
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

MAY WE NOT WASH THAT DIRTY FEELING?

According to a legend squeamish folk are fond of rectifying, King Victor Emmanuel, first or second, bet his courtiers that if he went without bathing for a month he would smell like a peasant. Of course they protested that a king would smell like a rose regardless. The king won the bet. The chap who writes the ads for the soap that penetrates the hypothetical pores ought to whip this yarn into shape for sales purposes.

A college girl "majoring" in that is the word, in physiology and hygiene, decided to try out my teaching about the use of rather the uselessness of the toothbrush. That is to say, she scrapped the old brush and the odds and ends of dentifrices she had on hand, and worried along for a few weeks without 'em. But she weakened presently and took up anew the support of the brush and paste industry. She said her teeth felt so dirty and became unbearably foul with accumulated detritus, or some such horrible stuff.

Rudyard Kipling recently offended English society by asserting that there were no bath tubs in London until after 1888 or somewhere around that period. Yet Victor Emmanuel was strong for soap a hundred years ago, and still stronger for want of it.

Perhaps the Italian King took his baths standing. That's the hygienic and healthful way to take 'em today, if you must take a wet wash. Not only standing, but perhaps hopping about. Only very dirty folk, indeed, or invalids, should get down and wallow in a bath. The shower or sponge bath taken on the run, so to speak, is a clean, sanitary, hygienic, healthful rite; the tub soak or wallow is something else again.

Several million people have now proved, to my satisfaction if not to their own, that fairly faithful adherence to the rules about brushing the teeth does not preserve the teeth from decay. Whether these millions of faithful addicts go on using toothbrush and mysterious dentifrice or not, they should never falter in the effort to keep their teeth clean or dirty, it doesn't matter which.

A great many girls and women, succumbing to the passing craze or fad, have sought advice about "reducing" and from the information they give it is evident that most of them are suffering from that fat feeling and not from obesity. To my mind—and I place good looks second only to good health—these lovely women are just p. n.—not to annoy our skinny readers unnecessarily—and it would be a crime for them to reduce. Generally all they need is a reasonable amount of exercise such as a daily "reducing" and from the information they give it is evident that most of them are suffering from that fat feeling and not from obesity. 14 Women In 9 Hole Match At Riverview

Fourteen women golfers entered for play in the 9-hole golf match Monday on the Riverview Country club links. A luncheon was served at the clubhouse before the play to about 20 women. Two prizes were awarded in the tournament. Mrs. James Bergstrom won the prize for low net with a score of 43 and Miss Josephine Bradford won the prize for the smallest number of putts.

Among those who played in the tournament were Miss Eleanor Wing, Mrs. J. K. Peters, Miss Josephine Bradford, Miss Helen Bradford, Mrs. J. F. King, Mrs. George Gilbert, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. James Bergstrom and Mrs. Harry Price.

A 9-hole match for women will be played over the first nine holes at Butte des Morts Wednesday. Prizes for low gross and low net will be awarded. Players are to tee off between 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Players have been requested to play in twosomes or foursomes, choosing their own partners. Mrs. James Bergstrom, chairman of the sports committee, also has requested that score cards be turned in at the office after play.

The first three matches in the championship flight have been played off. Mrs. Peters defeated Mrs. Frank Holbrook. Mrs. Norman Brokaw defeated Mrs. P. R. McCaul, 3 and 2 and Mrs. James Bergstrom defeated Mrs. Dan Brown, 3 and 2. The remainder of the matches will be played off this week.

LARGE CROWD AT CHURCH PICNIC

Approximately 350 persons attended the Sunday at Pierce park for the Sunday school children and members of St. John Evangelical congregation.

About 95 per cent of the Sunday school children attended the short class which was held at the park. The Rev. W. R. Wetzler, pastor of the church, conducted an open air service at the park at 11 o'clock. About 150 persons were present. The sermon topic was Mark's of a True Christian. Games were played during the afternoon and a picnic dinner was served. Sunday school teachers were in charge of arrangements for the picnic.

CHICKEN SUPPER AT PUBLIC PICNIC

A chicken supper was served at the community picnic given Sunday afternoon and evening at the old shooting park a half mile north of Calmes Corners. MILWAUKEE LAWMAKER DESERTS PROGRESSIVES

Milwaukee—(P)—Attorney General Herman L. Ekern in a speech here Tuesday, denied that labor favored the Esch-Cummins act and declared that Representative John Schafer has deserted the progressive movement.

"The La Follette progressives have won the first battle of the attack on the Esch-Cummins law," Mr. Ekern said. "The useless railroad labor board together with the vicious labor sections created by the Esch-Cummins act have been wiped out."

"In campaign after campaign the La Follette progressive republicans, the American Federation of Labor, and the Railroad brotherhoods have united in denouncing the Esch-Cummins act in the strongest terms."

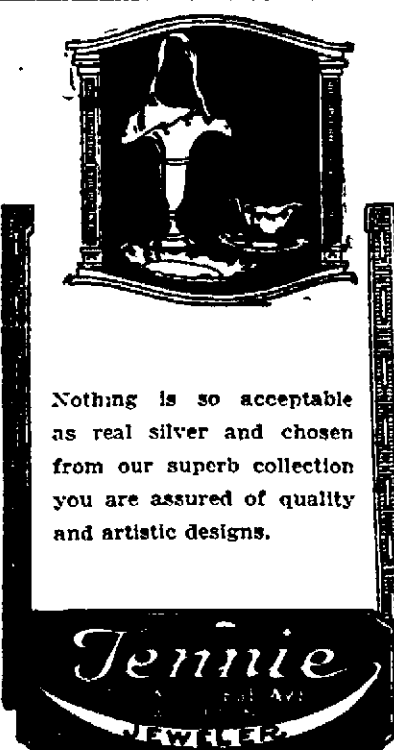

WOMAN COULD NOT SLEEP

Her Mother-in-Law Knew A Remedy

Mrs. Belle Thompson, of Georgia, was in a very weak and run-down condition for four years. She had great difficulty in getting to sleep at night and even then did not sleep soundly. She would wake up again and again. Besides this her appetite was poor. "My mother-in-law told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I was not the same woman at all. I could sleep and would get up in the morning singing and feeling fine. I am the mother of three children and always after the babies came I had to take treatments, but I can truly say that this last time I have only used the Sanative Wash. It does me more good than the treatments. It keeps me on my feet to care for my children and I do most of my work. I feel it my duty to let you know how both of the medicines have helped me."—Mrs. Belle Thompson, R. 2, Rosville, Georgia.

VICTORY OVER
VOLLEYBALLERSMerchants' Helpers Score
Eight Runs in Hectic Third Inning

Kaukauna — The Clerks soft ball team easily defeated the Volleyballers in a twilight league game at the municipal park Monday evening 12 to 3. Minkebege was on the mound for the Clerks and he kept the few hits the Volleyballers did get well scattered. Hulén pitched a fairly good game for the Volleyballers but had ragged support.

Two runs were scored by the Clerks in the first inning. Both teams crossed home plate once in the second. Then the Athletics blew up in the third and eight Clerks touched home plate before three men were out. The Volleyballers could only get one run in their half. Neither side scored in the fourth and fifth while both got one in the sixth. The seventh was scoreless.

The Bankers meet the Electricians Tuesday evening. The Bankers are in first place and are undefeated.

The lineup:
Volleyballers—Ryan, c; Hulén, p; Kallista, 1; Klammer, 2; Rohm, 3; Dix, r. s. s.; Gehl, l. s. s.; Engholdt, lf; H. Dix, cf; and Krahn, rf.
Clerks: Nagle, c; Minkebege, p; Hass, 1; Graf, r. s. s.; Ashauer, 2; Brenzel, 3; Lieshout, cf; Bolin, lf; and Pahnke, rf.

EMBARRASS BOY
DROWNS WHILE IN SWIMMING

Dives from Spring Board in River and Fails to Return to Surface

Special to Post-Crescent

New London—Carl Kriwaldt, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Kriwaldt of Embarrass, was drowned there at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The boy was swimming in company with others below the dam. He dove from the spring board and another lad, waiting at the board for him to come up, saw only the tips of his fingers appear.

Search was begun immediately and the body was recovered after 20 minutes had passed. He was still alive when brought to shore, but all efforts to restore him to consciousness failed. The drowning was witnessed by a great many people who were in Embarrass for the farmer's picnic and ball game.

Three brothers and one sister, beside the father and mother, survive. The funeral will be held Wednesday at Embarrass.

SODA GRILLS EASILY
DEFEAT HIGH LIFES

Special to Post-Crescent

New London — Cliff Donner won Monday night's baseball game for the Soda Grills against the High Lifes, bringing home the tying run and helping Sterns steal home with the winning counter. The last two innings were played in darkness. Each of the High Lifes and Smith of the Grills both made home runs. Melkle, John pitched a steady game and though the High Lifes had no regular pitcher, Borchardt did well for his first attempt. In Wednesday night's game the Undertakers play the New York Lifes. With the Grills winning three straight, they and the Undertakers and New York Lifes are bunched together for first place.

START RETEST OF CATTLE IN COUNTY THIS WEEK

ALL REACTIVE HERDS WILL BE TESTED AGAIN

Work Will Be Completed in About Six Weeks, Veterinarians Predict

Work of retesting Outagamie-co herds for tuberculosis reaction was started this week by four veterinarians of the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture. Only those herds will be tested in which reactors were found in the recent county test.

The herds which produced reactors to the tuberculin test are between 800 and 900 in number. It is expected that the retest will be completed in about six weeks.

Veterinarians who will make the retest and the territory in which they are starting work are: Dr. H. E. Mullen in the towns of Deer Creek, Liberty and the west half of the town of Maine; Dr. C. F. Lord in the towns of Seymour, Cicero and the east half of Maine; Dr. R. E. Nelson in the town of Seymour. Dr. H. A. Downey, 118 E. Wisconsin-ave, is the only veterinarian of this county who is a member of the retest staff. His territory has not been designated.

Present indications are that few reactors will be found in the retest, as the percentage is usually small when compared with the total number of infected animals found.

"The testers who are to work in Outagamie-co have just finished the retest in Shawano-co, and only about 100 infected cows were found," declared Robert Amundson, county agricultural agent. "In the original tuberculin test in Shawano-co about 2,000 infected animals were found. We have every reason to believe that number of cows condemned in the retest will not exceed the percentage of Shawano-co."

With few exceptions, all farmers who had cattle condemned in the area test several months ago, have already received checks from the government for the amount of the indemnity allowed them.

SPUD OUTLOOK BETTER THAN IN OTHER STATES

Potatoes are in a thrifty condition in Outagamie but not equally good in other potato states according to a report by the Crop and Livestock Reporting service of the Wisconsin and U. S. Departments of Agriculture at Madison. The forecast for the United States is 346 million bushels which is only 6 per cent more than last year's short crop.

Early potatoes of which there is only a small acreage in this state were damaged by drought in July and are poor generally. The late crop was badly in need of rain in many areas during July, but rains during the last days of the month and the first days of August brought quick improvement. The crop is now thrifty and growing conditions are favorable over most of the commercial area of the state.

Wisconsin's condition of 57 per cent of normal on Aug. 1 is six points above the 5-year average for this date and is higher than the condition in any of the other late potato states arranged in order of importance as follows: Minnesota 74 per cent, New York 82 per cent, Michigan 82 per cent, Wisconsin 87 per cent, Pennsylvania 84 per cent, North Dakota 67 per cent, Idaho 80 per cent, Colorado 84 per cent, Maine 85 per cent.

BROWN-SWISS GROUP TO HAVE EXHIBIT AT FAIR

Members of the Outagamie-co Brown-Swiss Breeders association will meet Saturday afternoon with the secretary of the Seymour fair, to complete plans for a Brown-Swiss cattle exhibit, which will be held at the fair during the last week in August. The association will display about sixty head of the finest Brown-Swiss stock in this county. Two large tents have been rented for the purpose.

Rabbit Farm Is Supplying Demand For Popular furs

BY W. F. WINSEY

Waupaca—The Chinchilla Fur Farm of Harry H. Ruvin of this city, started a year ago, has rapidly grown and developed into one of the largest in the state. The farm occupies between one and two acres of land on the north bank of the Waubesa river almost in the center of the city.

For the past twenty years, the Ruvin, father and son, have been fur dealers in Waupaca and when Harry was asked why they started in the Chinchilla rabbit industry he replied: "A number of years ago, we had no trouble in buying 40,000 muskrat pelts in a single season. That number has gradually dwindled so that we now have difficulty in buying 156,000 muskrat pelts a season in this vicinity. We have noticed a corresponding decrease in the number of pelts of all other kinds of native fur-bearing animals."

"The demand for fur is constantly becoming greater and the price higher as the supply decreases. Chinchilla rabbit pelts are tougher than fox pelts, mink, muskrat, and ermine. Rabbits require less care and are less expensive to rear than any other fur-bearing animal raised in captivity. The flesh of other fur-bearing animals, domesticated, is wasted, but the flesh of rabbits is an excellent article of food. Seventy per cent of seal fur, plucked heavier fur, clipped muskrat fur, mink

INSPECT IMPORT CORN FOR BORER

State Acts to Detect European Pest in Shipments Arriving at Ports

Madison (AP)—Additional precautions to prevent the European corn borer attacking Wisconsin fields were taken recently by Dr. S. B. Fracker, state entomologist, who ordered the inspection of all corn arriving at Lake Michigan ports.

Dr. Fracker announced that an inspector of the state department of agriculture will be stationed at the Milwaukee docks starting next week. He will seize all sweet corn from the infected area and interview all those bringing corn into the state.

The inspection may be extended to Kewaunee and Manitowish where boats arrive from Michigan ports on irregular schedules, Dr. Fracker said. It is to afford additional protection to Wisconsin and supplements the work now being done by the federal government. Federal inspectors are stationed along the border of the infested area of Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York and inspect all automobiles on the principal state highways.

Wisconsin, in common with other states, has established an embargo against corn from the infested area which includes not only the five lake states but New England also. All corn on the ear from the states subjected to the ravages of the borer is barred and sweet corn can be sent to this state only after being shelled and cleaned.

While no evidence has been found of the corn borer in Wisconsin, the farmers of the state have been asked to maintain vigilance. An appeal to 50,000 farmers to watch for the pest during August is being mailed out by the state entomologist. The borer is easily found by the broken tassels of the corn and locates generally in the stalk.

SPONSORS FARM ECONOMY SURVEY

Detroit — An institute of animal economies to increase the prosperity of the farmer who depends on the dairy cow and hen for his living has been established here.

James E. Larrowe, widely known in agricultural circles as an engineer and inventor, is sponsoring the institution which will be called the Larrowe Institute of Agricultural Economics.

Men of wide experience in agriculture will direct the work of the institute. These experts will make a survey of conditions in the dairy and poultry districts and will keep the farmer posted on the most approved methods of getting the most out of the dairy cow and the hen.

In creating the institute and contributing largely to its maintenance, Larrowe is helping to carry out a project which he has had in mind for some time.

LABOR QUESTION BOTHERS FARMER

Can't Compete With Bigger Pay and Shorter Hours Offered by City

Thomas Byrne, route 5, Appleton, is considerably disturbed over the labor conditions on the big farms of the country and what they are doomed to be in the future if relief is not forthcoming. "Even at the present time," said Mr. Byrne, "men who are accustomed to the short hours and big pay of city workmen, cannot be induced to leave their work in cities and to seek employment on farms. What is said by farmers to laborers about free board and washing on farms, big wages and the opportunity to save money, cuts no figure at all in an argument designed to draw farm help from the city to the country or prevent country boys from pulling up stakes on the farm and migrating to cities. The big farmer simply cannot get men or if he is successful occasionally, the rule is that they do not stick."

"As an illustration of the difficulties of the problem, we are trying to solve, I hired a man last March, 65 years of age, at $5 a month to work on my farm throughout the year. Milking cows was beyond his power and experience and the wear and tear of age prevented him from flipping sacks of grain onto a wagon. Although he was a good worker, he could do nothing with the heavier jobs. He used very little English. However, I would have kept him if I could and given him a home through the coming winter."

"At the close of the third month of his work, this hand surprised me by demanding more pay than he was getting. 'Look here,' I said in reply, 'you are doing quite well at light work and you are fairly satisfactory to me but you are already getting more money than your work is worth. I'll quit then,' came back the quick, conclusive retort from the workman."

"More pay, less work, shorter hours, is the slogan of boys and men who are offered farm work."

"The old man quit as he threatened to do, collected $30 due him and 'blew in' his cash in three days."

Appleton Matron Enjoys Good Health For First Time In Years

Declares indigestion, headaches, constipation, dizziness and general weakness have been overcome by new remedy Drecto.

Since the new herbal remedy Drecto was introduced here recently never a day passes but that someone calls on the Drecto Export at Schlicht Bros. Drug Store and tells of the wonderful amount of good they have received.

"Mrs. Jane Groff, 73 years old, who runs a busy confectionary store at 627 West College Ave., Appleton, Wis., says:

"For fifteen years I have suffered agonies. I've been so rundown and the medicines I took proved so ineffective, I refused to listen anymore to friends' advice when they recommended this medicine or that medicine. But when the Drecto man came to town and I learned that this new remedy was made from the juices of the good old-fashioned plants, roots and herbs, I thought that here at last was a medicine which might help me so I started taking it."

"At the time I was in misery with stomach and liver complaints. I had no appetite at all, yet the little I ate caused me to suffer intensely with

LATE RAINS ADD TO OUTLOOK FOR 1926 CORN CROP

Drought and Rust Affected Season's Oat Yield Throughout Wisconsin

A rapid growth of corn during July, oat yields cut by dry weather and rust, and good barley yields—are features of the August survey by the Crop and Livestock Reporting service of the Wisconsin and U. S. Departments of Agriculture at Madison. The report also states that rains during early August were very helpful to corn, potatoes, pastures, and new seedlings of clover and alfalfa.

Corn made good growth during July in the western half of the state but continues very uneven and backward in eastern counties. A fair tonnage of silage corn is the best prospect for many fields in the state, but depending upon the date of frost conditions are quite favorable for ripe corn in southwestern and western Wisconsin. "The state condition of 73 per cent of normal compares with 57 per cent for the past 5-year average at this date."

Dropping from prospects in southwestern counties of 87 per cent of a full yield on July 1 to a 74 per cent prospect on August 1 indicates the injury to the oat crop by drought, hot winds and rust. The damage was more or less general throughout the state and is reflected in reduced yields and light weight grain. Yields appear to be fair to good in eastern and northwestern Wisconsin but poor in the southwestern part of the state. "The state condition of 84 per cent is about the same as the 5-year average condition, but the foremost of production is 20 per cent below last year's big crop."

Barley was farther advanced and escaped most of the adverse factors affecting oats. Yield prospects are uniformly good to excellent and the Wisconsin harvest promises to equal last year's crop.

Among the other grains in Wisconsin, rye has yielded 15 bushels per acre—practically the same as last year and the 5-year average. Reporters estimate an average yield of 20.6 bushels—about one bushel more per acre than last year.

HAY CROP IS AVERAGE

Yields of hay proved light in northwestern counties due to a cold, dry June, only fair in most of the state, and good in eight or nine southeastern counties. Generally speaking, new seedlings made usual yields but old meadows were very thin. The total Wisconsin production is six per cent below last year. Weather was favorable for making hay during July and the crop was put into barns in good condition. Pastures were short and dry in much of the state on Aug. 1 and the recent rains will make a marked improvement.

Among the special cash crops in Wisconsin, sugar beets and cabbage are in a thrifty and promising condition. Both have a condition of 90 per cent—five points above average. There is a one per cent reduction from last year in the Wisconsin cabbage acreage and an eight per cent increase in New York.

SHORT GRAIN AND HAY CROP

Feed grains and the hay crop for the entire United States are materially less than a year ago. The corn prospect is 12 per cent below last year and 10 per cent below the past 5-year average. Oats promises about an average production but 13 per cent below last year's large production. Barley is poor in the Dakotas and Minnesota, making the United States crop 12 per cent below last year. Widespread drought has made this year's hay crop 12 per cent below last year and the smallest since 1913.

ARTILLERY BAND MAKES BIG HIT AT GUARD CAMP

Plays Two Concerts at Fireman's Picnic at Brillion After Return

Members of the 120th Field Artillery band, which returned from two weeks at Camp Robinson at Sparta Saturday afternoon, spent a busy weekend parading the streets on their return and playing two concerts at Brillion on Sunday. The band arrived here about the middle of the afternoon on a special train and marched down Appleton-st. to Washington, east on Washington to Ononda-st., south on Ononda to College-ave and east on the avenue to Armory G. Then the organization returned to Elk club, where two selections were played before it disbanded.

Sunday afternoon and evening the band played at Horn mark. Brillion and Mike Steinhauer, drum major of the organization, gave a talk in the afternoon. The concert at the part of the annual fireman's picnic. It also was a homecoming program for Edward F. Mumm, director of the band. Mr. Mumm is a native of Brillion, directed the village band there 25 years ago. A number of Appleton people attended the concert.

The band, composed of 47 men, went to Camp Robinson on July 31. The band also played concerts in nearby cities. Last Thursday at La Crosse, the crowd was estimated at from 15,000 to 20,000 and cars were parked for three blocks on each side of the park. Three concerts played in Sparta and another in Appleton drew crowds of over 2,500 people and a concert at the Sparta orphan asylum was enthusiastically received.

A delegation of La Crosse city officials, cooperating with the American Legion, invited the band to come to the city as the feature of the program for the state Legion convention there from Aug. 26 to 28. It is not known whether the invitation will be accepted as the band already has contracted to play at the Seymour fair at that time.

APPLETON MAN GETS SPRINKLER CONTRACT

Mr. Phillips recently completed installation of a similar system at the Zwicker Knitting mill, 416-18 N. Richmond-st.

SPUD GROWERS VISIT FIELDS

Tourists Study Means of Controlling Mosaic Diseases

Mikana — (P) — Wisconsin potato growers who are on their annual tour visited northern Barron-co and Rusk-co Tuesday to inspect the fields near Angus and Mikana.

Indexing of potatoes to control the mosaic disease is being studied by the tourists. Plans for handling the certified seed crop of northwestern Wisconsin this year were discussed today.

The party will visit Price county tomorrow, Rhinelander and Eagle River on Thursday, Starks and Antigo on Friday and Langlade county on Saturday. The two days spent in the vicinity of Three Lakes, Eagle River, Rhinelander and Starks will cover one of the most important seed potato production sections of the state.

Arrangements for the state potato show to be held at Antigo on November 16 to 19 will be discussed when the party reaches that city. The tour is conducted by the horticultural department of the Wisconsin Experiment station and the Wisconsin Potato Growers' association. The latter organization has 250 members. Amos Ratcliffe, Eagle River, is president.

George Stewart, Jr., has returned to his work at the Bijou theater after a week's vacation at Crystal Lake and Madison.

Waitresses Here Aren't Getting Rich From "Tips"

Although waitresses in Appleton hotels have not posted signs reading "10 cent limit of tips" that amount is the average tip, hotel proprietors state. In some cities, hotel waitresses are paid small salaries, managers knowing that the girls make more from tips than from pay checks.

This is not the case in Appleton, however, where waitresses admit that they make some "pocket money" from tips but claim they're not getting rich on them. The average individual tip is 10 cents. If there are several in a party, waitresses say, each member usually leaves a dime when he departs. Occasionally the guests are more generous and leave quarters.

CANDIDATE HITS "MADISON RING"

Zimmerman Assails Blaine-Ekern Slate Fixing Meeting

Milwaukee — (P) — Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman continued his attack upon the so-called "Madison ring" in a speech here Monday.

Mr. Zimmerman quoted from the progressive platform of 1902, stating that the main purpose of the primary law was to permit the people to select their candidates without interference from any political agency.

"If it is the will of the people that these self-appointed and self-anointed candidates of the 'Madison ring' shall do the thinking for the people in the selection of the state officials, we might as well save the expense of a primary election and let the dictators at Madison write their own certificates of election without the people casting a single ballot," he said.

"But I do not believe the people will show submission in this primary election to the will of boss control as typified by the slate-making corporation at Madison."

half dollars, and once in a while a dollar tip greets the young woman.

Bell-hops are more fortunate. In fact they are the persons around hotels who get the "big change." It is said that in larger hotels than those in Appleton, it is the custom of the management to hire a chief bell-hop in charge of the other boys who gets no other income than a percentage of tips received by his understudies.

There are no such intrigues in Appleton hotels and what each bell boy makes is his own. How much he gets depends entirely upon himself and the service he gives his guests. The average tip, although bell-hops seldom reveal such strictly private financial matters, is about 50 cents, although there are numerous transients inclined to be more liberal and dollar tips are not uncommon.

An employee in one Appleton hotel tells of the time he received $10 from John D. Rockefeller when he was working in Chicago. He still believes that the "oil king" intended to give him a dollar, but made a mistake and peeled a $10 bill from his roll.

BADGER PRINTING CO. GETS BALLOT CONTRACT

The contract for printing 23,000 of-ficial ballots and 3,000 sample ballots for the primary election on Sept. 7, was awarded Monday to the Badger Printing Co., whose bid was $276. The only other bid was offered by Meyer Press. Bids for the printing of 100 calendars for the September term of circuit court will be opened Sept. 1.

MRS. BLACK SCHEDULES TALK AT LITTLE CHUTE

Mrs. Dorothy Lenroot Black, daughter of Senator Irvine L. Lenroot will speak at Little Chute next Monday evening, Aug. 23, according to an announcement made here Tuesday morning in a letter from M. H. Fisher, secretary to Senator Lenroot. Mrs. Black is supporting her father's candidacy for reelection this fall.

BROWN-CO GROUP WILL TAKE PART IN DAIRY PICNIC

Holstein Breeders Complete Plans for Annual Outing Next Friday

Committees of the Outagamie-co Holstein breeders association have practically completed all arrangements for their annual picnic, which is to be held next Friday at the farm of George Schaefer, about seven miles west of Appleton, off highway 18, in the town of Greenville.

Members of the Brown-co Holstein Breeders association, which will not have a picnic this year, will attend the annual outing Friday at the Schaefer farm. A large representation is expected to attend from the neighboring county, and plans have been made with this in mind. The committees will meet again on the Schaefer farm Thursday evening.

The program for Friday's picnic is as follows. At 11 o'clock in the forenoon there will be a milking contest between breeders of the two counties — cows to be furnished by the local association; at 11:30 demonstration in bridling a balky horse; at 12 o'clock noon lunch will be served, cafeteria style, from baskets brought by those who attend. Coffee and milk will be furnished by the Outagamie association.

Music throughout the afternoon will be supplied by the Hortonville band. At one o'clock in the afternoon George Nixon of the Schaefer Hardware Co. will sing several solos; at 1:45 L. L. Oldham, secretary of the State Holstein Breeders association, will deliver the address of the day; a mock judging demonstration, showing the advantages and disadvantages of mixing cattle breeds, will be given at 2 o'clock by R. J. Schaefer; at 3:15 there will be a tug-of-war between Brown and Outagamie-co breeders. A baseball game will be played, beginning at 3:15 between teams to be announced later.

Numerous other forms of entertainment will be provided, including games, target shooting, bowling,

MILWAUKEE CAR HITS CROSSING SIGNAL POST

A touring car owned by Walter Miller, 670 Jefferson-st., Milwaukee, was badly damaged in an accident at McCarthy's crossing, near Kaukauna Saturday night. Although none of the occupants of the Miller machine could be located Monday, it is said that their car hit a signal post at the crossing. The front end of the car was badly smashed.

ROTARIANS LISTEN TO PROGRAM OF READINGS

A group of readings by Miss Rosetta Segal made up the program of the Rotary club at its meeting in the Northern hotel Tuesday noon. Routine business was transacted.

IST and last add sixty-one sail crafts "The Caprice," "Haywire" and "Red Raven" pulled away from the remainder of the fleet for a three-hour race during most of the event. They were the first three boats to round the home buoy on the first leg. The "Red Raven" through skillful skippering managed a comfortable lead over the other two until the second round when the "Haywire" forged into the lead.

On the third round the "White Cap III" of the Delavan yacht club capsized and was disqualified. On the fourth A. J. Hill, of the "Red Raven" shipped desperately to overhaul the Oshkosh boat, but the "Haywire" maintained its lead until the cannon boomed on the "Arnim," the judges boat, proclaiming it victor.

The other boats of the fleet maneuvered home with no sensational contests for place honors.

Earlier in the day, the class E. and C. races brought out 46 craft.

LEGIONAIRES CONDUCT TWO MILITARY FUNERALS

Members of the Oney Johnston post of the American Legion conducted two military funerals Monday and Tuesday. Monday afternoon the funeral of Henry F. Koehnke, who died Saturday morning at his home at 1303 S. Oneida-st., was held from the home. The Rev. F. L. Schreckenbach was in charge and interment was in Riverside cemetery. George Dame, post commander, was in charge of the military part of the service and Thomas O'Neill had charge of the firing squad. The full military service was held. Twenty legionnaires and former soldiers attended.

Tuesday morning the legion took part in the services for Harvey Smith, who died Saturday afternoon at his home at 135 S. Walter-ave. Commander Dame again was in charge of the military service and Thomas O'Neill was in charge of the firing squad. Former service men and legionnaires acted as bearers. These were Jack Fries, Edward Young, John Young, Joseph Schmidt, John Schmidt and Max Roehl. Services were held at 8 o'clock at the home and at 8:30 at Sacred Heart church. Burial was in St. Joseph cemetery. The Rev. F. L. Ritsman was in charge of services. Thirty legionnaires attended.

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Mostly cloudy tonight and Wednesday, probably showers; not much change in temperature.

Weather Conditions

A high pressure area of moderate intensity overlies the Lake Superior district this morning, and lower pressure is reported over the New England states northwestward to Oklahoma. Another "low" overlies the northern Rockies. Showers have fallen during the past 24 hours over widely scattered sections, with these "lows," the rains being heavy on the north Atlantic coast. The "high" over this section is moving eastward, and the indications are that the lower pressure will overpread this section to night and Wednesday, with considerable cloudiness, and with the weather slowly becoming unsettled. No material changes in temperature are anticipated.

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"
Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes each fermentation in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. In fact, upon "Phillips," twenty-five cent and fifty-cent bottles, any drug store, "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

GOPHER, BADGER RIVALRY STARTS

Gridders from Rival States to Meet in Title Battle at Fort Snelling

Ft. Snelling, Minn. — (AP) — Traditional football rivalries between Minnesota and Wisconsin flared up about five weeks ahead of the season as gridiron teams from the two states prepared to uphold the honors of their respective teams in a game here Tuesday night.

Intrepid Gophers chiefly from high schools in this state and net doing squads left and right at the Citizens Military Training camp here will take the fields against the Badger eleven at 6:30 o'clock in answer to a challenge from the neighboring state.

The Wisconsin team includes a group of regulars from Eau Claire normal who are at the training camp for the purpose of accumulating some brown for the coming football season.

Under the tutelage of Capt. J. C. McCormick Assistant grid coach at Drake University, 23 Minnesota boys have answered the Wisconsin defy. The Badger team will be captained by Harold "Red" Carroll present coach at Lincoln High School Milwaukee. Al Olson and Jack Gunn, Eau Claire, Normal stars, will also be in the lineup.

Miss Marcellette Taylor of Washington, D. C., who has been visiting the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carroll left Tuesday for Oshkosh where she will spend several days with friends.

FARMER LOST WAY, BELIEF

Foul Play Is Scouted in Disappearance of New London Man

Foul play is not suspected in the mysterious disappearance of Kasmer Kostzrak, 73-year-old farmer living about a mile north of New London who dropped from sight Saturday morning, July 25, and has not been heard of since, according to Sheriff William Toepke of Waupaca-co. Sheriff Toepke believes the elderly man became lost in the swamp adjacent to his farm and probably died from hunger and exposure, he stated Tuesday.

Kostzrak was last seen about 4:30 on the morning of July 25 by Edward Rossey who was driving a milk truck to New London. Rossey saw Kostzrak standing on the road a mile south of his farm and staring intently toward the swamp to the west. It is thought the man wandered into the swamp shortly after that and lost his way.

Kostzrak had been in ill health for some time, and fear was expressed that his mind may have become affected. Previous to his disappearance he had twice wandered away from his home.

Although searching parties have combed the countryside, they have found no trace of the missing man. The last search was conducted by Boy Scouts last week, under the direction of Merlin Selms, athletic director at New London. A reward of $100 to the finder of Kostzrak has been offered by his family.

He owns an 80-acre farm for which he paid $16,000 six years ago. He has a wife and eight children.

Never a Marcel Wave

By Edna Wallace Hopper

VANITY CASE

BEGIN HERE TODAY
MRS. PRENTISS, who suffers from insomnia, sees lights mysteriously appearing and disappearing in the HEATH household next door one night and the next morning HARBORS GARDENS, Long Island is again with the murder of MYRA HEATH and the disappearance of her husband, PERRY, an artist.

House guests of the Heaths are LAWRENCE INMAN and BUNNY MOORE. Inman might have a motive because he is the heir to Myra's considerable fortune, she having made her will in his favor and cut her husband off. Suspicion also points toward Bunny, a golden-haired beauty, because of her refusal to answer questions at the inquest and the fact she had apparently known of the murder before the maid, who went to her room to inform her.

Myra Heath was a peculiar woman, beautiful but cold. She did not love her husband; she never used cosmetics, never wore color; she had a mania for collecting rare bits of glass, and it was an old whisky bottle that was the instrument of her death—a bottle from her own collection.

Candles were burning at her head and feet when a maid discovered her body, and nearby was a card marked "The Work of Perry Heath." Strangest of all, she was made up heavily with rouge and dressed in gay colors.

At the Country Club the murder is discussed by SAM ANDERSON, AL CUNNINGHAM and others, some believing Perry Heath the murderer, others disagreeing. The strange thing about Heath's disappearance is the fact that all the doors and windows had been locked on the inside the night before and were found that way in the morning.

Finger prints of Inman and Bunny Moore are found on the bottle and the coroner declares his belief that the murderer will be found in the household.

NOW GO WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XIII

Had Larry been less perturbed, he must have laughed at the pompous air and stilted diction of the coroner.

But he was dismayed at the turn things had taken. He had had no doubts but the coroner would at once assume Perry Heath guilty and forthwith institute a search for him.

"Your assumptions are not without interest," Larry said, looking at the coroner. "But what, then, is the meaning of the eccentric act of painting Mrs. Heath's face and adding colorful touches to her costume? This point was an obsession with Mr. Heath, but no one else would have done such a thing."

"As I understand it, nearly all of Mrs. Heath's friends and acquaintances urged her to use a touch of make-up, and, too, we have no real reason to assume that the rouge was applied to Mrs. Heath's face after she was dead. It may well be that she consented to the experiment while still alive."

Inman looked startled. "Strictly a medical man can tell you about that."

"This speech deeply annoyed the coroner, for he suddenly realized his own delinquency in not having thought of that point."

"He therefore ignored it, until such time as he could correct his own error."

"Then the card, of such sinister significance. It is scarcely possible that Mr. Heath would have placed that where it was found, if the terrible deed had been really his own work."

"That's just where you're wrong," Larry exclaimed. "Perry Heath is full of the spirit of bravado, he has a diabolical sense of humor. It is exactly what he would do—attach a gruesome signature to his own work."

"I can't agree with that. But we are not seeking opinions, we want facts. If then we assume Mr. Heath went away on some simple or casual errand, where do you think he is now?"

"That is surely a matter of opinion, Mr. Coroner, and you say you are out for facts. But I can't opine about Mr. Heath's casual errand—if he went on one—for I am fully convinced that he killed his wife and then disappeared purposely and permanently."

"Getting out of the house and leaving no unlocked door or window."

"Surely he had his latch key."

"But the front door was fastened on the inside with a chain bolt."

"Then by some overlooked window, or side door, perhaps."

Explains How Enlarged Veins Can Be Reduced

Often times Veins Burst and Cause Much Suffering, Expense and Loss of Employment.

"Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches."

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it at home as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moore's Emerald Oil has brought much comfort to worried people all over the country; is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

Voigt's Drug Store, Schlitz Bros. Co. adv.

"No, we had the most thorough and careful search made in that respect. Herrick fastened every door and window on the inside, last night. And he found the bars and bolts all intact this morning."

"Then I give it up, but I still feel sure that there must be some obscure entrance or exist from this house, that Perry Heath could use, if so minded."

"Will you suggest one?"

"In the cellar, perhaps the coal hole."

"Not a chance. Everything down there was cut off from the main house, by the upper cellar door, leading from the pantries, and which is the only means of connection with the cellar. This door was locked as usual, on the pantry side. Heath could not have gone down through it, and left it locked."

"Let me go over the house, and I'll guarantee I can find several ways he could have left his home secretly. Lord knows I've no wish to accuse Perry Heath of this thing if he is not guilty, but, personally, I think there is no slightest sign of his innocence."

"You say you all urged Mrs. Heath to use what is known as 'make-up' on her face?"

Yes, we did. We all felt it would improve her extremely pale countenance.

"You thought that, too, Miss Moore?"

Osborn had a most disconcerting way of turning with a sudden question to another witness.

"Why yes," Bunny said, pulling herself together. "We have all been in the habit of jesting about it."

"Then the crime was clearly the work of some one who knew of the distaste of Mrs. Heath for cosmetics, and some one who had sufficient nerve to apply the coloring to a dead woman's face."

"You said you were not sure she was dead when—" Larry began, but the coroner interrupted him.

"I am sure now," he referred to a written message which had been handed him. "I asked Doctor Conklin to investigate that matter, and he tells me that the cosmetics were applied to Mrs. Heath's face after death."

"How can he tell?" Larry growled.

"There are many ways to ascertain that. A physician could not be mistaken. Now, what I want to know is where is that vanity box that was used for the purpose?"

"That's easy," said Inman. "When I left the room, I saw a gold vanity box with lots of dangling trinkets, lying on the table."

"It's not there now. Who removed it?"

Nobody answered, and the coroner, turning to Bunay, said:

"Do you think it was Mrs. Heath's own?"

"I think it must have been," she replied, but her voice shook in spite of her efforts to keep it steady.

"Then why has it disappeared?"

"I'm sure I don't know," Bunay had recovered her poise, if not reason, it carried it off. They are sometimes valuable trifles, and I think it was a burglar who did the whole crime."

She put her head on one side like a wise canary bird, and falling under the spell of her helpless air and wistful countenance, the coroner forbore to question her further.

But, whether by reason of Osborn's lack of skill, or the non-committal evidence of the witnesses, no points of real importance were forthcoming, and the awe-struck and bewildered jury brought in the open verdict of murder by unknown hands, but with a strong recommendation that Perry Heath be found.

Steinhauer Completes 30 Years In National Guard

Alderman Mike Steinhauer, a sergeant in the National Guard, completed his thirtieth encampment with the Wisconsin Guard with his return home Saturday evening. His thirtieth encampment was spent on the Federal artillery range at Camp Sparta.

Alderman Steinhauer, who is familiarly known by members of the National Guard as "Sergeant Mike," has been with the Wisconsin Guard since 1896 and has served under four adjutant generals, Boardman, Holway, Salsmann, and Immell. He has seen great strides made in advancement over the old guard, particularly in military courtesy and discipline. A career in the guard of today means the thorough military schooling of the recruit and the turning out of a product as well fitted for civic and social life as produced by colleges and universities.

Sergeant Steinhauer emphasizes the improvements in sanitation and health. The National Guard averaged from fifty to one hundred sick for the encampment. Now this number has been reduced many times. He attributes his thorough training to Captain Pomeroy, Appleton, now a colonel, retired, who was a strict disciplinarian.

Private Steinhauer became first sergeant in Company G of the old Second Wisconsin. He went to Porto Rico with Company G, 2nd Infantry, in of real importance were forthcoming, and the awe-struck and bewildered jury brought in the open verdict of murder by unknown hands, but with a strong recommendation that Perry Heath be found.

TRY LEMON JUICE TO WHITEN SKIN

The only known way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

Three-Year 6% First Mortgage Gold Bonds (Closed)

Due July 1, 1929

Price 99 and Interest, Yielding 6.38%

Dated July 1, 1926. Interest payable January 1 and July 1 without deduction for normal Federal Income Taxes now or hereafter deductible at the source, not in excess of 2%. Principal and interest will be payable at the offices of Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., in Chicago and New York and at the office of The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, Trustee, Minneapolis. Coupon bonds in interchangeable denominations of $1,000 and $500. Issuance of these Bonds has been authorized by the Railroad Commission of Wisconsin and the Michigan Public Utilities Commission.

GUARANTEED BY ENDORSEMENT AS TO PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST BY NORTHERN PAPER MILLS

For detailed information regarding these Bonds, attention is directed to a letter of Mr. Judson G. Rosebush, President, from which the following is summarized:

The Company: Northern Electric Company, a Wisconsin corporation, is controlled through stock ownership by the Northern Paper Mills of Green Bay, Wisconsin, the largest self-contained manufacturer of tissue paper in the United States. The Company owns approximately 70 miles of recently completed 132,000 volt steel tower transmission line, running north from the mills of the Northern Paper Mills at Green Bay, to connect upon completion of a nine mile addition to the line with its two hydro-electric power plants being developed on the Menominee River.

The entire output from one plant has been contracted for by The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company, and will be delivered over the transmission line of the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company which now occupies under lease one-half of the completed tower line, an integral part of its super-power transmission system. Both of these companies are subsidiaries of the North American Edison Company. The other plant and half of the transmission line have been leased to the Northern Paper Mills.

Security: These Bonds, in the opinion of counsel, will be secured by a direct (closed) first mortgage upon all of the Company's physical property and rights now owned or hereafter acquired, subject only to lease with the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company for space on one-half of tower line which will produce a rental amounting to about $21,000 per year. As additional security, the contract and leases referred to above will be pledged under the Mortgage securing these Bonds.

Purpose: The proceeds from these Bonds will be used towards the acquisition of the Company's present properties, and funds not immediately so applied will be deposited with the Trustee to be expended only in connection with the completion of the dams, generating stations, transmission lines and necessary auxiliary apparatus, and the acquisition of such additional lands and rights as required.

Earnings: Based on the above contract and leases, independent engineers have stated that net earnings of the Company before depreciation will be in excess of $360,000, as compared with maximum annual interest requirements on these Bonds, of $180,000. The rental from lease with the Northern Paper Mills should alone cover bond interest and operating charges.

Guarantor: The Northern Paper Mills, organized in 1901, manufactures tissue papers and specialties, under the trade names of "Northern Tissue," "Northern Cabinet Tissue" and "Northern Towels," which are being widely advertised and nationally distributed. Net earnings of the Northern Paper Mills available for interest, depreciation, and Federal Taxes, averaged for the two years and four months ended April 30, 1926, $372,600, not taking into account anticipated earnings and operating economies due to its subsidiary's power development. Rental to be paid the Northern Electric Company will constitute an operating charge of the Northern Paper Mills, and will replace charges for power now purchased elsewhere.

A circular more fully descriptive of the issue will be sent upon request

The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company Second Ward Securities Co.

These Bonds are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and accepted by us and subject to the approval of counsel. Definitive Bonds will be ready for delivery on or about September 1, 1926. All statements herein are official or are based on information which we regard as reliable and which we do not guarantee them, we ourselves have relied upon them in the purchase of this security.

Her Own Way

A STORY OF A GIRL OF TODAY

PREVIOUS CHAPTERS

JULIA DEAN spurned CHARLES BECKER, and with $250 given her by her dad, JASON DEAN, went to Chicago under the name of JULIE KEAN to make her own way. She lost her $250 in a cafe. But CLEMENT STERNES gave her a job as hat checker, and she found a friend in MAMIE RILEY, with whom she worked. An old acquaintance, JIMMIE COSTELLO, showed up. He punched the nose of a "lobby lizard" who insulted Julie, then took her out to dinner and introduced JERRY HATHAWAY, who promised to recover the $250. Going home, Julie found Mammie Riley crying. Mammie began telling Julie of her life and her ambition to be an opera singer.

THE ECSTASY OF INSPIRATION

"Through some provision of chance I became an errand girl in a hat shop, and you can imagine my joy when I was told to deliver a hat to Mme Rosario, the opera singer. "I went to her house without the slightest idea that I could see her, but just to walk the steps her feet had trod and when I was told to take the hat up to Madame's room, I was so excited I could hardly walk. "There I found Rosario surrounded with the greatest luxury. Her room was like something I could never imagine, but that had no temptation for the little girl standing there awestruck because she was in the presence of a real opera singer. "Trembling, I held out the box to the maid. I could not have spoken had I died for it. "Afterwards I still stood by the door, forgotten by the diva as well as her maid. Presently she began to sing. First almost to herself, but finally her glorious voice filled my heart with ecstasy. I crept nearer and nearer until I was kneeling at her feet. She must have felt me there kissing the toe to her little satin slipper, for she said "What does it? Why do you keep my slipper?" "I don't know," I stammered, "unless it is that I have heard you sing." "You have heard me sing in opera, my child?" "No, but I have just heard you sing here." "I suppose Madame Rosario had never had such sincere tribute paid to her voice, for she said "I will sing for you, my child." "Immediately the whole room was filled with that glorious aria from 'Thaïs' "Of course at the time I didn't know what it was but I learned it later. "For a moment I stood spell-bound and then, strange as it may seem, for I was utterly unconscious of it until Madame stopped abruptly, I was trying to follow her. "Child, child, see you that hat has a voice," she said. "Oh, I did not mean to. Forgive me," I did not know what I was doing. "I'm glad you did it for you must learn to sing. You must let nothing, nothing my child, stand in the way of making it possible for you to give that voice to the world." "Madame Rosario did not know what she was doing to the child. I took her words literally and that's why I'm crying tonight."

DICKINSON-WALSH EIGHTH IN PRO-AMATEUR EVENT

Appleton Golfers Shoot 36-38-74 To Place High Among Thirty Star Pairs

Lovekim-Adler First With 70; One Under Par; Walsh, Rose Start Play Tuesday

Shooting a score of 36-38 for a total of 74 over the course of the Kenosha Country club Monday, Frank Walsh and Ken Dickinson, representing Butte des Morts Country club of Appleton, took eighth place in the pro-amateur 18-hole best ball event, opening competition on the program of the state open golf championship. The score was three over par. Thirty 2-man teams competed in the event, which was won by Bim Lovekim and Phil Adler of Woodmont club, Milwaukee, with 34-36—70, one under par. Jimmy Rose, Riverview pro, who was paired with Max Shimon, Milwaukee, withdrew from the competition, but will take part in the regular meet. Jake Blakelee, state champ, and his mate Dick Cavanaugh, finished second with a 71, par for the course. Lovekim formerly was pro at the Green Bay golf club. Bobby DeGure, pro at Wisconsin Rapids, an Appleton boy, finished high when he and his partner shot a 75 on the 18-hole grid.

Pairings for the first medal round Tuesday sent Rose out at 9:05 in the morning with F. J. Leonard, star Milwaukee pro, and Phil Sanborn, Madison amateur as companions. Leonard is picked as a possible winner this year. Sanborn is the man who eliminated Ken Dickinson in the opening round of the amateur meet.

Walsh started out at 9 o'clock, accompanied by Carl Schlicht and Ned Allis. Allis is present state amateur champ, an honor he has taken eight times. Dickinson is not entered, but Buster Bock, 1925 northeastern Wisconsin title and runnerup this year, will play in the meet. DeGure also is entered.

STAN KUICK, BELOIT STAR, WITH BADGERS

Milwaukee—The Milwaukee Badger professional eleven will begin training and practice sessions for a heavy season on Sept. 7, according to the present plans of Red Bryant, the former Maroon star and manager of the local team.

He has eighteen players already under contract. Frank (Ovie) Lane, 1924 Marquette football captain and tackle, signing yesterday. Clarke Fischer, a former Hilltop back and later a star at Catholic university, will play here, as well as Stanley Kuick of Beloit, chosen on several all-western eleven. Ashmore of Gonzaga university is another to get in line.

There is still a possibility that Lavie Dilweg, Marquette's All-American end, will sign with the Badgers for the season.

WEEK'S GAMES
Wednesday—Meyer Press vs Legion.
Friday—Y. M. C. A. vs Interlake.

Two teams of the Twilight softball league took firmer grips on the positions which they already held Monday afternoon when the Post-Crescent squad beat the Bankers, 11-7, and the Legion trimmed the Interlakes, 5-2. The Legion win tightened its hold on the top and placed it out of reach of the second place Y. M. C. A. crew for a week at least. The P-C win broke a virtual third-place tie and put the Starnard crew firmly in the position, two games behind the Triangles.

Playing without the services of Eddie Starnard, the P-C boys played steady ball to trounce the Bankers. The Wissman crew threw the ball around and muffed easy throws behind good hurling. Hartzell played third base and Eggert short for the winners and this combination worked so well that Starnard's absence was hardly felt.

The P-C men started out with a run in the second frame and another in the third, but here solid clouts by the Bankers gave them four in the final half for a 4-2 lead. Each team added two in the fourth, and the P-C men scored three more in the fifth for a 7-6 margin. Two more P-C men dented the platter in the sixth and another in the seventh for a 10-6 lead, while the Bankers guns were spiked in the fifth, sixth and seventh. In the eighth the Bankers got their final tally and the P-C crew came back with another in the first of the ninth, holding their opponents in the last half of the frame.

Bates, Schroeder, and Hartzell got two hits apiece for the winners. Schroeder and Bates scored twice. Stogebauer got two scratch hits for the losers and no other member of his crew got more than one. Errors and bad pegs lost the game for the Bankers with both Wagner and Wissman hurling even ball. The P-C hurler getting the better support. "Cappy" kept the crowd in good humor with antics on the bench, almost toppling the crowd from the head of the famous Nick Albrook.

Kotal-Campbell Match Only One Left Before 8 Men Play Second Matches

Seven Appleton netmen entered the second round of the annual Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament and championship as the result of games played the latter part of last week, Monday and Tuesday. One first round match, that between Eddie Kotal, former Blue athlete, and A. Campbell, remains to be played.

Players already in the round are Clem Lacke, Harold Eads, Herman Gottsleben, Joseph Hantschel, R. V. Landis, Arthur Homes and A. Carter. Landis and Lacke drew byes in the opening round.

Eads defeated Professor W. E. Rogers, 6-1, 6-1. Gottsleben trimmed G. Trentlage, 6-4, 8-6. Hantschel licked John Catlin, 6-2, 2-6, 8-5. Homes whipped Arthur Jensen, 7-5, 6-1. Carter meeting R. Zaumeyer, played two sets the first going to Zaumeyer, 9-7, and the second being called on account of darkness at 6-5. Then Zaumeyer defaulted to Carter as he will be out of the city for sometime.

In the second round matches, Lacke will meet Homes; Eads will meet the winner of the Kotal-Campbell match; Gottsleben will clash with Carter; and Hantschel and Landis will complete the fight.

Errorless ball by members of the American Legion squad enabled that crew to whip the Interlakes, 5-2. Not an error was chalked up against the Legion the entire game while the Interlakes made it interesting with only one or two. The Interlakes scored twice in the first frame and after that not a man got beyond second base, with the loop leaders turning in fielding features one after the other.

The Legion scored three times in the first frame and then were held scoreless with the game at 3-2 until the seventh. Here one more came over and the final run came over in the eighth. Graef hurled great ball allowing only four hits, while LaRoux gave nine. However, the work of Graef's mates allowed him to keep his hit total down as they cut off sure hits by great catches. Les Smith pulled one down from over his head, cutting off a sure double in the final frame and Schabo got a neat catch of a foul back of third. For the losers Woods at shortstop pulled the sensation, getting a hot line drive with one paw. Frawley scored twice for the winners.

Lineups:
Legion—Schabo, Wheeler, Smith, Sylvester, Frawley, Fries, Kahn, Kolb, Graef, Bushey.
Interlakes—Coon, McCourt, Kirk, LaRoux, Quell, Brandenburg, Woods, Keeler, Moody, Anholzer.
Legion—3 0 0 0 0 1 1—5 Interlakes—2 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 Batteries, Interlakes—LaRoux and Kirk; Legion—Graef and Kahn.

BREWERS TAKE THIRD FROM TRIBE; GAIN 1

Milwaukee—No matter what the Brewers are doing, or where they are going, they can always find time to knock off the Indians. The unfortunate Bushmen wandered out to Athletic park Monday as per schedule and for the third straight time were thumped into submission. The score was 11 to 10 and was the fourth game in a row won by a one-run margin. The victory also reduced Louisville's lead to one full game.

Delphis, Ohio—Joe Lucas, Detroit bantam, won a judges decision over Billy Evans of Van Wert, Ohio (10).

Chicago—Nick Quagrelli New York junior lightweight and Eddie Speaks, Louisville, appeared hesitant to fight and the referee declared their bout no contest in the seventh round.

Dempsey's Chance With Tunney Depends On Legs

BY JOE WILLIAMS

New York—Will Mr. Ziegfeld kindly step forward and serve as an expert witness in the case of Mr. William Harrison Dempsey versus Mr. James J. Tunney, belligerent fistfighters?

It seems that the most important matter involved in the deferred disturbance is legs and that if any accurate intelligence is to be had on the outcome it must come from one well grounded in the study of the nether limbs—as they were modestly called in the gay vanities.

Hence the immediate urge to subpoena Mr. Ziegfeld, whose training along these lines is known to be thorough and complete.

Within the week I have talked with two former champions who tried to "come back," just as Dempsey is trying, after an extended abstinence from the Queensberryian feasts. The first of these was old Jim Jeffries, one of the greatest heavyweights of all time. Jim quit the ring for five years and then returned to receive the ring's first $100,000 purse, and, with it, the worst beating of his life.

This was when the younger and better conditioned Johnson whipped him in every round before dropping him for the full count in that wooden abattoir out at Reno 16 summers ago. "My legs went back on me," Jeff explained. "I couldn't lift them up after the fourth round. I felt as if I had been trucked and some traitor had shipped leaden soles into my shoes."

John Patrick Kilbane was the other old champion I talked with. John was one of the great featherweights of what we call the modern ring. He had as pretty a one-two punch as I ever looked at, as pretty as Willie Lewis' ever was, and Willie's was supposed to be the daddy of them all.

Kilbane quit the ring in 1921 and stayed away until 1923, when he came back to defend the title against Eugene Cigrui, the steel-jawed Frenchman. Kilbane was knocked out in the sixth round. A wild, over-hand right—a sucker punch—caught him on the jaw and he went down.

Kilbane didn't seem to be badly hurt. At six he began to get up. At eight he had regained his feet. And then his ankles and knees were seen to turn inward and when they did he collapsed in a heap and was counted out.

"I could hear the fans shouting 'yellow' and 'quitter,'" recounted Kilbane, now a gray-haired realtor in Cleveland, "and I felt kind of queer myself, knowing I was all right otherwise, my head clear and my arms strong. But there was a nervous tremor shooting through my legs and a tooth-achy pain that ran from my foot to my thigh. I remember saying to myself, 'you're as bad off, Johnny, as a legless man.' And I was."

The moral of this is clear. If Mr.

Dempsey is to do what Messrs. Jeffries and Kilbane failed to do, then he must look to his legs. He must resort to every possible training means to get them into first-class condition.

From now on the most important part of the champion's training routine ought to be road work. When I was with him last spring in the mountains of North Carolina he was doing from three to five miles a day. He will have to do more than that from now on.

Jeffries' advice to him is worth accepting. "Dempsey ought to run himself ragged every other day, and on the days he doesn't he ought to run twice as much."

Winnipeg, Man.—Frank Moody, British middleweight, easily won from Del Fontaine, Winnipeg, Canadian middleweight champion, in a no decision bout in the opinion of newspaper men (10).

Utica, N. Y.—Bushy Graham, Utica bantam, beat Davy Abad of Panama, (10).

Over two billion smoked a month! —how do you explain it?

Natural tobacco taste that's the answer!

It's a difference hard to put into words—but it takes no expert to taste it. Character; natural tobacco character, natural good taste—get that in a cigarette and you get everything!

For four consecutive years, Chesterfield has remained America's fastest-growing cigarette; over two billion are smoked per month. Do men want natural tobacco taste? The record speaks for itself!

CECIL LEITCH—PLAYING THE IRONS
Beginners must never try to use a full swing when playing an iron. This is most important, as should they do so, there will be almost certain to over-swing. Something between the perpendicular and horizontal will be found sufficient.

In iron club play the ball is hit just before the club-head reaches the point at the bottom of the circle it describes. This means that a full follow-through will be impossible, and that, instead, the club-head will take a divot just in front of where the ball lay.

In order to achieve this result the weight must be chiefly on the left leg, the stance must be firm, the club must be gripped very firmly with both hands, the downward swing must be well controlled and not too full, and the body must be slightly in advance of the club-head on the downward swing. Throughout the stroke the left arm should be as straight as possible. The whole shot is a hit rather than a sweep. In golf, as in everything else, a very little makes a great difference.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEF ARRESTED IN WICHITA, KAS.

Man Accused of Stealing Harwood's Car Held for Appleton Police

Charged with stealing an automobile sedan from the garage of F. J. Harwood, 319 S. Meade-st., Roscoe E. Baker, being held for Appleton police at Wichita, Kas., according to a message received Tuesday morning by Chief Pirm. A police officer will be sent to Wichita Wednesday morning to claim Baker, who was employed as a painter by Mr. Harwood, is said to have taken the automobile from the garage on July 24.

The garage was locked when the Harwood family left on a vacation early in June, but the keys were left in the house, which was open to workmen. Loss of the automobile was discovered by Mrs. T. E. Orblson, 203 N. Law-st., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harwood, when she entered the garage. Upon Mr. Harwood's return to Appleton last Tuesday a description of the missing car was sent to many cities throughout the United States by Appleton police, and Baker's arrest followed.

9 NET STARS WILL SUPPORT LENGLEN ON AMERICAN TOUR

New York (AP)—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen will be supported by nine capable tennis players in her professional tour of North America starting in September according to her manager, C. C. Fyle who also pilots the football star Red Grange.

More over, Fyle will not call upon tennis clubs to stage the contests in which the great French player appears. He will build his own battlegroups.

This was made known by the manager upon his arrival from France on which Lenihan Monday.

While in Europe Fyle also made tentative arrangements for Red Grange and George Wilson, all American backs to take teams across the Atlantic for exhibition games. Mlle. Lenglen and her entourage may also embark on a world tour, he said, insisting that she should make "plenty" through her tennis play in a motion picture already planned.

FAMOUS BADGER WOMAN, 82, DIES

Assisted Victor Hugo With Manuscripts and Taught Many Prominent Persons

Green Bay (AP)—Funeral services were held here Tuesday morning for Mrs. Isabel Radcliffe Boulet, who died at Menominee, Mich., Sunday afternoon, at the age of 82 years, following illness which rendered the aged woman helpless since last May. Mrs. Boulet, when a young woman in England assisted Victor Hugo, the famous author with his manuscripts.

Isabel Boulet was born in Manchester in 1844 and when 11 years old her father moved his family to Antwerp where in 1867 she became acquainted with Victor Hugo, who had been banished from France because of his religious views. She assisted him with the manuscripts of "The Man Who Laughs" and taught English to many prominent persons, including ministers from South American countries.

Shortly after her marriage in 1869 Mrs. Boulet came to Green Bay with her husband and many hundreds of Belgian immigrants who settled in the nearby cities.

Following the death of her husband in 1901, who had conducted a grocery store here for 38 years, Mrs. Boulet moved to the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Reilly at Menominee, Mich. She is survived by two daughters and two sons.

FREEDOM CLINGS TO LEAD THOUGH LOCKS WIN TWO

Trounce Oneida, 15-9; DePere Smacks Wrightstown, 17-0; Chuters Lose Twice

STANDINGS	W	L	Pct.
Freedom	7	4	.632
Combined Locks	7	5	.583
DePere	6	5	.545
Wrightstown	6	6	.500
Oneida	4	7	.364
Little Chute	4	7	.364

SUNDAY GAMES
Combined Locks 11-3, Little Chute 1-1.
DePere 15, Oneida 9.
DePere 17, Wrightstown 0.

Freedom slugged out a victory over the tattered Oneida crew in a battle of bats at the reservation city Sunday and the win was badly needed as it kept the loop leaders from slipping off the top perch in the Intercounty ball loop. While Freedom was winning its slugfest, 15-9, the rejuvenated Combined Locks outfit with its valley league stars was taking both ends of a double header from Little Chute, for its seventh straight loop win. The Locksmen slugged out a 11-1 win and then added a 3-1 second game for good measure to shoot all the way from third place tie to second place, a half game from the Freedomites.

Meanwhile in the other league tilt, DePere came, saw and conquered, giving the home town Wrightstown crew, its worst beating in some time. Not content with scoring 17 runs against the strong Wrightstowners, the DePere boys added insult to injury by forcing their rival to take nine goose eggs in a row. Wrightstown's loss shoved it all the way from second place, where it had been clinging to Freedom's heels for several weeks, to fourth, the Locksmen and DePere moving above it. DePere, tied with the Locks for third was forced to hold that position alone, when the Smith crew won both ends of the double bill. Stegeman hurled Combined Locks to victory in the opener and then pulled the iron man stunt in the final tilt with Dix catching both tilts. Pican and Brockhaus formed the losing battery in the first tilt with Vandersteen throwing to Brockhaus in the final. The Locksmen made eight hits and six Chute errors count for their 11 tallies in the opener while the losers got six hits and were given only one chance on a misplay. In the second tilt, the Chuters outlived the winners, 6-5, and each had two errors, but the Locks hits were bunched for a 3-1 win.

Tornow and Schommer worked for Freedom Sunday while Swamp and Skenadore were the batterymen for Oneida. Klister lasted two innings for Wrightstown and W. Kussow finished with A. Kussow receiving while Lardinois and Dick were the DePere batterymen.

Beside pushing DePere and Combined Locks above Wrightstown, Sunday's game shoved Little Chute down to a tie for the bottom rung with Oneida. Both last and the Chuters were alone in seventh last week, but they lost two Sunday.

Next Sunday Combined Locks invades Wrightstown in an effort to take the top at the expense of the home boys. The Wrightstown crew will be fighting to regain its place near the top of the heap which it can do by a win. A win for the home crew will tie the team with the Locks in either second or third place, depending on the other tilts.

Freedom will entertain DePere's fast-stepping crew with first-place at stake. A DePere win will tie it with the Freedom crew for the top or second, if the Locksmen win, so that the game is a real first-place battle, with the DePeremen battling desperately to make the grade and the Freedom crew fighting to stay on top before the home crowd. At Little Chute, the Oneida Indians will engage the home

BAKERS WIN EASY GAME IN K-C LOOP

Kimberly—Van Thulls Bakers had an easy time defeating the Kimberly Postmasters, 17-7 Monday evening in the Kimberly Twilight Softball league. The Postmasters got their first score in the third inning while the Bakers had scored in each of the three innings and had four runs to their credit. In the fifth inning they sent seven men across the plate. The Postmasters big inning was the seventh in which they scored three runs. The pitching of Charlie Behling, Baker, twirler, was a feature of the game. Hopkins was highest scorer for the Bakers bringing in four runs. Fox brought in two of the Postmasters' scores. Wednesday evening the Clubhouse Boosters will meet Wydevden Shoes in a loop slugfest.

Kimberly Postmasters 0 0 1 1 0 1 3 0 1—7

Van Thulls Bakers 1 1 2 2 7 0 2 2—17

Batteries: Postmasters—Bourassa and Harp; Bakers—Behling and Verbeten.

MATHYS TO PLAY WITH PACKERS

Former Indiana Star to Share
Quarter Duties With Mc-
Auliffe and Kotal

Green Bay — Charlie Mathys will again do his stuff for the Packers. The veteran quarterback came to terms with the management on Friday. Aside from Capt. Lambeau, Mathys is the only Green Bay high school graduate on the Big Bay Blues.

Some years back when West was mopping up everything in sight Charlie started his football career. He played several years for the purple and white and then entered Ripon. Mathys played there for a year and made his letter in football. He switched over to Indiana and saw two years of service on the conference gridiron. After graduation from the Hoosier institution, Mathys played one season with Hammond and he joined the Packers in 1922. He has been here ever since. Charlie has been a member of the Packer squad longer than any player except Capt. Lambeau.

Charlie has taken more than his share of banging for the Big Bay Blues, and, until last year, when injuries laid him on the shelf a bit, he hardly lost a minute from action. The veteran will have easier going this year as McAuliffe and, possibly, Kotal, are to be worked in at the quarterback's job. This will enable Charlie to catch his breath after being tossed about on the football sea.

Mathys is a steady footballer and he knows the ins and outs of the game like a book. He is a mighty handy receiver of the forward pass and it wasn't so long ago that the Lambeau-Mathys combination used to run their opponents ragged.

YANKS HAVE HARD ROW, LEADER SAYS

Cards Gain Half-game on Idle
Pirates by Win Over Cubs
in Last Frame

Miller Huggins, little manager of the New York Yankees, feels that he has a big job in front of him despite his teams long lead in the American League.

"We must win half of our remaining 36 games to be safe," he argues, "and the way we went last week even that is going to be hard. Cleveland can't take many beatings that's true, but we'll have to fight every team all the way to be sure of the flag."

Chicago and Detroit set up somewhat of a record for the season Monday when they went ten innings without a score and then had to run for trains. On Sunday they played five scoreless frames. In the two days the Tigers made five hits off Lyons and Edwards while the White Sox registered four off Gibson and Collins. Monday's record was three each.

Triples by Haney and Gaston gave the Red Sox a 7 to 1 victory over St. Louis in the second game of a double-header after the Bostonians had been outgassed for a 6 to 1 beating in the first. Both long blows came with the bases filled. Vangilder gave the Sox only four hits in the first game.

The St. Louis Cardinals gained a half game on Pittsburgh by beating Chicago, 5 to 4, in a ninth inning rally. Bottomley singled with the bases full and two out in the final frame.

The Cards are now only a game and half behind the leaders. Monday's results.

Pettibone's Smart Gift Shop

Shows New Importations for Gifts, Prizes and Decorations

Early Fall weddings and parties are plentifully provided for in Pettibone's Gift Shop. New things arrive daily for smart gifts, and the most unusual of new items are here for home decoration. Exclusive lamps and shades at moderate prices are an important showing here—and clever occasional bits for various rooms of the house are here. You will be delighted with them.

Italian Pitchers $1.50 and $2.50

Tall Italian pitchers that may be used for waffle pitchers are shown with hand-painted floral decorations in soft colors. They are delightful in pairs for mantel vases. $2.50.

Squat pitchers in the gayest of Italian floral decorations are fashioned with the "pinched" lips and fat bodies that are so popular. For flowers or for table use. $1.50.

Venetian Glass

Gorgeous new pieces of fine Venetian glass are arriving and being sold daily.

A pair of compots in canary yellow are decorated with the typical glass flowers. $8. each and a large size.

An unusual Venetian glass swan is an ideal table centerpiece. $12.

An exquisite dressing table set in lovely blue with tall cologne bottles is $16.50.

Unusual Boxes from Many Lands

Boxes that are reproductions of antique caskets are made of wood with covers shaped like the top of a house. In a rich polychrome. $2.50.

Coffer-shaped boxes in wood and polychrome are $2.50.

Painted boxes in floral designs from India are $1.75 and $2.50.
